NOTE FOR: Executive Director

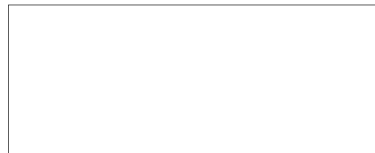

Attached is background for your presentation of the Meritorious Unit Citation to the Geography Division, OGI, at 1130 on Wednesday, 11 July 1984. The award will be accepted by [redacted] Chief of the Division. Of the [redacted] awardees, about [redacted] will be present.

There will be four outsiders. Two of them, [redacted] are awardees who have since retired. Another, [redacted] is a former Chief of the Geography Division; the fourth, [redacted], is a former Deputy Director of OGCR.

Dick Kerr will be the senior DDO officer and should be included in the second photograph--after you have presented the MUC to [redacted]

Suggested comments for you to make are on the left side of the folder. They were prepared by the Geography Division. one awful.

If you have any questions or wish to have a dry run, please let me know.

GEOGRAPHY DIVISION

OFFICE OF GLOBAL ISSUES

is hereby awarded the

MERITORIOUS UNIT CITATION

in recognition of the exceptional accomplishments of its members during 1982 and 1983. Their ability to focus quickly on important foreign policy issues and prepare concise, timely reports had a significant impact on high-level decisionmaking and satisfied a broad range of consumer needs. The outstanding collective performance of these individuals in the production of unique geographic intelligence demonstrates the highest standard of professionalism and excellence. The valuable contribution of the Geography Division during this period upholds the finest traditions of the Intelligence Directorate and is truly worthy of commendation and honor.
