Jan:

In addition to Season's Greetings and all the best wishes that pass at this time of year, I did want to note that we recently got some papers out and at a recent NFIB meeting your name was extolled as having made a fantastic contribution to the intelligence community on the tech transfer issue. I thought you would like to know since it's always nice to be remembered, even in absencia.

Hope all goes well with you and the outside world remains honest to its call.

Good luck.

Warm regards,

John N. McMahon
