2. The agenda for the meeting is attached. I noted to the group that it was important to understand where we are with this effort in order to help develop DCI guidance by mid-January 1984 and as input to the annual update to the CIRS plan.

3. There was a great deal of general, open, and frank discussion about the status of the effort. The following points were made during the discussions:

STAT

4. There was general agreement among all attendees that the April 1986 implementation date for CIRS/CIRC was the current best estimate and that these problems need to be solved in order to meet that date.
