SUBJECT: Invitation to Speak to the Mid-America
Committee for International Business and Government Cooperation, Inc.

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline an invitation to address the Mid-America Committee in Chicago for either a breakfast, luncheon, or dinner at a mutually convenient date next February or March.

See attachments for further information on the Committee and its list of members. You could expect an audience of approximately 50 CEO's. The meeting would be off-the-record and no foreign nationals would be present.

The Honorable
William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

It was good to see you at the dinner for His Excellency Wu Xueqian at the State Department a few weeks ago. As I briefly mentioned to you, we are in the process of putting together our Spring program and would be honored to have you join us in Chicago for either a breakfast, luncheon or dinner briefing next February or March.

I have enclosed updated background material on the Mid-America Committee for your review. Pam Webber, Program Director for the Committee, will be in touch with your office to discuss possible dates.

Again, it was good to see you in Washington. I look forward to working out a mutually convenient date and welcoming you to Chicago.

Best personal regards,

The Mid-America Committee for International Business and Government Cooperation, Inc. was formed in 1966 to provide a platform for the exchange of views on international economic policy, trade and investment between senior U.S. and foreign government officials and senior executives of the largest multinational corporations based in the Midwest.

The Committee was founded by Thomas H. Miner, president of an international consulting firm, together with the chief executive officers of the major multinational corporations in the Midwest (sponsors include the chief executive officers of the eighty top firms in the region). Sponsors have met with over three hundred and fifty U.S. and foreign government officials in the past sixteen years. The Committee's guests have included President and Mrs. Gerald Ford, Vice-President George H.W. Bush, Their Majesties The King and Queen of Sweden, Secretary of State George P. Shultz, Prime Minister Amintore Fanfani of the Italian Republic, Senator and Mrs. Charles H. Percy, and the Honorable Henry Kissinger.

The Committee's activities include sponsoring high-level Trade and Investment Missions to various parts of the world (e.g. Middle East, 1974; Cuba, 1977; China, 1976, 1977, 1979). In addition, the Committee arranges Washington meetings for its sponsors with senior U.S. government officials and also organizes seminars on topics of current economic interest such as Trade and Investment in Latin America, Asia, Africa and China.

The Wisconsin Council of the Mid-America Committee was recently formed in Milwaukee under the sponsorship of major local corporations.

The Mid-America Committee is a not-for-profit organization.
