RE: The EP-1

o My query as to preferred strategy came from Gary Chase's assumption that Durenberger would be interested in the Administration's druthers. Gary did not know, at the time, how Roth's individual Members had voted, since they were polled, individually, by phone.

o The question was on striking Section 603 (the EP-1/2 section) from the Intelligence Authorization Bill. Voting no were Eagleton, Stevens and Cohen; voting yes were Roth, Durenberger, Nunn, Levin, Chiles, McC. Mathias, Glenn, Gore, Cochran and Rudman.

o Given Durenberger's vote, with Roth and Nunn, it may not be worth further effort. It would certainly be undersirable to have a floor vote with ad hominem (Bill Casey) overtones.

o On the other hand, because it was a polled vote, Durenberger and Roth might (doubtful) be willing to listen to a phone call from Don Regan.
