Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of August 12 regarding the two Air Force officers who assisted your agency during a recent joint-organized operation. I was indeed pleased to hear your complimentary comments on their competence and professionalism. I have taken the liberty of sending your letter to the Secretary of the Air Force so that their actions can be appropriately recognized.

Again, thank you for writing. I appreciate your taking the time to express your gratitude.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Caspar W. Weinberger
The Secretary of Defense
Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear Cap:

I want to take this opportunity to commend two U.S. Air Force officers for exemplary performance of their duties.

25X1

Both officers displayed professionalism, initiative and positive problem-solving characteristics which contributed directly to the successful outcome of the activity. They handled fast-breaking events expeditiously and, at the same time, maintained the low profile required for the security of the event. Their cooperative attitudes and sound judgment during this jointly-organized operation had a most positive effect on the outcome. I commend them both for their contributions and ask that they be notified of my gratitude and that of my officers for whom they provided such outstanding assistance and support.

Yours,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
