Mason Signs for $py $tory

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 27—PAMELA MASON WILL BE GLAD to learn that James Mason has another big job coming up. When a lady is collecting around $1,500,000 in alimony it's comforting to know an ex-husband is busy working.

When James reports to Ely Landau for "The Secret War" (Henry Fonda is also in the cast), it will mark his sixth co-starring role in the last 18 months.

In the thriller, Mason plays a British intelligence officer on the trail of an East German Communist operating on the West side of The Wall.

James' two most recently completed movies are "Genghis Khan" and "Lord Jim."
