SUBJECT: National Security Council Meeting on US Policy Toward Central America;
December 10, 1985 (S)

In addition to those papers requested in my memo of November 19, the Department of Defense and the Joint Chiefs of Staff, in conjunction with the Department of State, are requested to prepare one additional paper for the December 10 NSC meeting on Central America. The following paper should be submitted to the Executive Secretary, National Security Council, Tuesday, December 3, 1985:

- actions which the US Government can take to assist the Government of El Salvador in achieving a coherent strategy for victory over guerilla forces. This should include military, economic, and infrastructure dimensions. (S)
