MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration
FROM: R. E. Hineman
Deputy Director for Science and Technology
SUBJECT: Agency Responsibility for C³ Review Council
Activities

90-1

1. For the past three years the Director of Development and Engineering (OD&E/DS&T) has served as the Agency's representative to the C³ Review Council. This council, under Donald C. Latham, the Assistant Secretary of Defense (C³I), has principally concerned itself with major requirements and policy matters pertaining to the evolving MILSATCOM architecture and, in particular, the MILSTAR System development.

2. The rationale for OD&E's direct involvement in this process was originally predicated upon

To a large extent, these issues have been satisfactorily resolved. At this juncture, it appears that present and future deliberations of the council--as they may pertain to the CIA--are primarily in those technical and programmatic areas which we have allocated to the Director of Communications (D/OC). Therefore, I believe it would be most appropriate and effective to reassign the continuing responsibility for Agency representation on the C³ Review Council to the D/OC at the earliest possible time.

3. This matter has been discussed between the Directors of OD&E and OC, and they support the proposed change. With your concurrence, I will advise Mr. Latham of our intent and ensure a timely and smooth transition.
