MEMORANDUM FOR: Robert E. Rich
Deputy Director, National Security Agency

FROM:
Vice Chairman

STAT

SUBJECT: Two-Year Rotational Assignment

1. I wish to thank you for your willingness to assist in identifying an NSA candidate for a staff intelligence position with the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee (CIPC) of the Intelligence Community Staff.

2. As you are aware, the Committee is tasked by the DCI to provide specific remedial solutions to critical, cross-disciplinary intelligence problems. Once a task has been assigned, we need a staff officer who can develop the terms of reference, assist the organization and management of the working group, and maintain contact with appropriate Intelligence Community organizations and individuals. Analytic skill as well as judgment and tact is required. Knowledge of collection systems is highly desirable.

3. Our present requirement is for the two-year rotational assignment of an officer at the GS-15 grade level. Reporting date would be 6 May 1985 or as soon thereafter as convenient.

4. I believe the assignment of an NSA officer would be advantageous to your agency, to the officer concerned, and to the Intelligence Community Staff.  Executive Secretary of the CIPC, can provide additional details if desired. He may be contacted on
