CONGRESSIONAL RECORD 6 June 1949 SENATE

ousideration of a conference report, which will not require very much time?

Mr. THOMAS of Utah. I yield, if by so doing I am not taken out the floor.

Mr. TYDINGS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senator from Utah may yield, without losing the floor thereby, for consideration of a conference report in which the Senate viewpointe has been adopted by the House. The conference report is on the Central Intelligence Agency bill, House bill 2663, which passed the Senate 3 or days ago.

The PRESIDING OFFICER Mr. Dovulas in the chair) Is there objection?

Mr. WHERRY, Mr. President, reserving the right to object, do I correctly

Mr. WHERRY. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, do I correctly understand the Senator from Maryland to state that the Senato viewpoint was acceded to by the House?

Mr. TYDINGS. The House acceded to the Senate amendment.

Mr. President, I submit the conference acceded to the Senate amendment.

Mr. President, I submit the conference acceded to the Senate amendment.

The President of the Central Intelligence consideration.

Consideration. +3

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will be read.

The report was read, as follows:

The report was read, as follows:

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H. R. Houses) to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established No pursuant to section 102, National Security Act of 1947, and for other purposes, having met, after full and bee conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to f their respective Houses as follows:

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendments of the Senate numbered 1, 2, and 3; and agree to the same.

M. E. Tudings,

Richard B. Russell,

Harry F. Byer,

Styles Bendes,

Chan Gurrey,

Managers on the Part of the Senate,

Call T. Durram,

CARL T. DURHAM,
LANSDALE G. SASSCER,
FRANCE R. HAVENNER,
L. C. ARENDS,
CHARLES H. ELSTON,

Managers on the Part of the House. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there

Chamber Ac

objection to the consideration of the re-There being no objection, the Senate

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the report.

Mr. WHERRY. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Maryland to make a brief statement respecting the report.

Mr. TYDINGS. Mr. President, the Senate will recall that at the instance of the Senator from North Dakots IMr. LANGERI, two small amendments of interpretation were placed in the bill. One was for the purpose of providing a wider check on immigration; the other confined the activities of the organization to external matters. The House adopted both amendments, which the

Mr. TYUINGS Yes. Mr. WHERRY. The Senate's view-Mr. TYDINGS, Yes.

Mr. WHERRY. The Senate's viewpoint was adopted by the House?

Mr. TYDINGS. That is correct.

Mr. WHERRY. I have no objection.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The report was agreed to. Mr. TYDINGS Mr. President, I asi

d adopted conference reports on CIA nching, Virgin Islands, Alaska, private ks, and U. S. broadcasts were ordered labeling, and the District of Columbia

Sugar and holivatives No.

claims bill.

ate

1008, to define the application of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Clayton Act to certain pricing practices, was passed, and to request that House return

CIA: Senate adopted conference report on H. to provide for administration of Central intelligence Agency of Sukumin story of Sukumin (1997) of the Sukumin of Sukumin message from the Bouse of Repre entatives, by Mr. Swanson, one of its eading clerks, announced that the House and agreed to the report of the commit tee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H. R. 2683) to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established pur-suant to section 102, National Security Act of 1947, and for other purposes.

Approved For Release 2003/04/23: CIA-RDP90-00610R000100170014-4

the report The Clerk read the title of the bill. The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

. There was no objection.

OF

pt

bc

W.

gı

in pı

The Clerk read the statement

(For conference report and statement see proceedings of the House of June . 1949.) Mr. SASSCER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 1949.)

minutes to the gentleman from New York

[Mr. Marcantonio].
Mr. MARCANTONIO Mr. Speaker. this bill originally came before the House under the suspension of the rules procedure. At that time I pointed out in my ther body. There it is necessary only opposition to the bill that in the report o introduce a bill in order to stay deaccompanying the bill, there was a state. ment to the effect that not all of the provisions of this bill would be explained to the Members of Congress. We were ave been introduced and unfavorably cted upon by our committee, a Senator presented with a most extraordinary sitas introduced a bill, and the deportauation. The House voted to pass this hush-hush bill, despite the fact that all of its provisions had not been explained and would not be explained to the mem- o be deported, has been stayed. bership. I stated then that this bill was Mr. mccommon yield?

Bill of Rights. The he gentleman yield?

WALTER. I y Senate amendments have not cured that. The situation with respect to elementary democracy, as it is endangered by this bill, remains the same. I opposed the bill then, and I have opposed this bill at he appropriate agencies. That is corevery step, and I oppose it now in its final stage.

In the last analysis, Mr. Speaker, the security of this Nation rests on the strength of its democratic institutions. tr This bill undermines those democratic institutions. It substitutes for our constitutional guaranties a Gestapo system. It is being sold to the country by hysteria, conference attended by the ranking members of both sides of the Committeeon the Judiciary, it was agreed that either body would have the authority to object to the Attorney General's ruling but that neither body would be obliged to act affirmatively. The Senate is adamant in its position, but my bill, H. R. 3875, similar to the Fellows bill of last year, is now pending in the Senate Committee on the Judiciary. Recently I suggested a compromise amendment to this bill and I sincerely hope that the other body will bring about its early passage, thus helping to break the logjam. We want to retain the power to object to the Attorney General's rulings, but the House does not want to be obligated to act affirmatively on nearly 2,000 cases per session. Certainly it seems to me that Members of Congress both of the House and Senate, should know what the real situation is. Mr. VORYS. Mr. Speaker, will the man mal

BASSER Mr. Speaker vield Mr. WALTER. The Committee on e Judiciary 2 years ago, when our stinguished colleague the gentleman om Michigan [Mr. Michener] was hairman of the committee, reviewed the ractice of staying deportations where bill was introduced, and it was decided hat unless the Member who introduced. ne bill requested a hearing, and we so otified the Immigration Service, the roceedings would continue. It was only h those cases where it was apparent that he Member intended to vigorously press or the enactment of the private legisation that deportation would be stayed. lowever, that is not the practice in the ortation. Incidentally, there have been number of cases where the House has efused to intercede, and even after bills ion of some alien who, in the judgment f the House Judiciary Committee ought Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, will

Mr. WALTER. I yield.

Mr. McCORMACK. Of course, when ou introduce these bills, it takes quite long time to have reports received from ect, is it not?

Mr. WALTER. Yes.

Mr. McCORMACK. I do know that it has created a rather compromising sitlation for Members of the House who have introduced a bill to know that that f itself does not stay the deportation intil an opportunity has been had to eceive reports sought and hearings held.

Mr. WALTER. I do not think the gentleman is correct in that, because, if a bill is introduced and a request is made of the Judiciary Committee, then the committee notifies the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and all proceedings are stayed until action has been taken on the bill.

Mr. McCORMACK. I am glad to hear that, because that clarifles an honest misapprehension that existed in my mind and must have existed in the minds of other Members. We all have communications on this subject at some time or another, perhaps two or three times a year, and, frankly, I have written to friends of mine stating that while I would be glad to introduce a private bill and submit it to the committee, and I have asked them to give me the evidence in affication to present to the subcom-office ease 1200 2004 Sixer C.A. Rippe body on the other side to introduce a bill to get a stay of deportation. It has been rather embarrassing. From now on I nell before the House bank lendments which were offered by the Serate and adopted by the conferens. These amendments do not change the scope or substance of the bill. One provides that if any employee of the Central. Intelligence Agency is on leave in the United States, he cannot be assigned to duty outside the agency. It is not the intention of the agency to use these employees for duty within the United States other than within the agency. They are simply brought back here for training. and so on, as the functions are carried on. in the continental United States.

The other amendment provides that in addition to the approval of the Attorney General on the admission of any of these aliens who may be brought in because of their high potential security value the alien must also be approved by the Commissioner of Immigration.

The bill was carefully considered in the committee, unanimously reported, and passed overwhelmingly in the House. It outlines and spells out the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency, and attempts to build up a career service.

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous ques-

The previous question was ordered. The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. MARCANTONIO) there were—ayes 74, noes 0.

The conference report was agreed to. A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

private bills, and cleared

riations measure, and on gs opened on new armed-

opted confer-

-00610R000

foreign credits, it that is the cases is ap-Salar and the stand of the stan priations does have to come out of the the money to take care of these appro-Mr. BALDWIN, In other words, then, Liesema in Older to See tra

Mr. 8488CHR. * Mr. 5 parker. Table up the conference report on the bar (H. R. 2663) to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established pursuant to section 102, Na tional Security Act of 1947, and for other urposes, and ask unanimous consent hat the statement of the managers or the part of the House be read in lieu of he report.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The Clerk read the blue of value of the SPEAKER. Is there objection to he request of the gentleman from Maryland?

There was no objection.
The Clerk read the statement.

(For conference report and statement

Mr. MARCANTONIO. Mr. Speaker this bill originally came before the House under the suspension of the rules procedure. At that time I pointed out in my opposition to the bill that in the report accompanying the bill, there was a stater ment to the effect that not all of the provisions of this bill would be explained to the Members of Congress. We were presented with a most extraordinary sill uation. The House voted to pass this hush-hush bill, despite the fact that all of its provisions had not been explained and would not be explained to the membership. I stated then that this bill was subversive of our Rill of Billston. on bership. I stated then that this bill was been stayed.

Subversive of our Bill of Rights. The Senate amendments have not cured that. The situation with respect to elementary democracy, as it is endangered by this bill, remains the same. I opposed the bill, remains the same. I opposed the bill at expreprise agencies. That is corevery step, and I oppose it now in its final stage. tage.

wi

ge

in

conference attended by the ran'ing members of both sides of the Committee on the Judiciary, it was agreed that either body would have the authority to object to the Attorney General's ruling but that neither body would be obliged to act affirmatively. The Senate is adamant in its position, but my bill, H. R. 3875, similar to the Fellows bill of last year, is now pending in the Senate Committee on the Judiciary. Recently I suggested a compromise amendment to this bill and I sincerely hope that the other body will bring about its early passage, thus helping to break the logjam. We want to retain the power to object to the Attorney General's rulings. but the House does not want to be obligated to act affirmatively on nearly 2,000 cases per session. Certainly it seems to me that Members of Congress, both of the House and Senate, should Approved F the real situation is.

Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

7 June 1949

The SPEAKER. The time of the genman from Pennsylvania has expired Mr. BASSUES, Mr. Speaker I yield e gentleman three adultional minutes. Mr. WALTER. The Committee on ne Judiciary 2 years ago, when our stinguished colleague the gentleman om Michigan [Mr. MICHENER] was nairman of the committee, reviewed the actice of staying deportations where bill was introduced, and it was decided at unless the Member who introduced see proceedings of the House of June 6 in bill requested a hearing, and we so 1949.)

Mr. SASSCER. Mr. Speaker, I yield a roceedings would continue. It was only minutes to the gentleman from New York in the Member intended to vigorously was a member with the Member he Member intended to vigorously press

Mr. McCORMACK. I do know that it security of this Nation rests on the trength of its democratic institutions. This bill undermines those democratic institutions. It substitutes for our constitutional guaranties a Gestapo system. It is being sold to the country by bystems. It is being sold to the country by hysterial sceive reports sought and hearings held.

Mr. WALTER. I do not think the gentleman is correct in that, because, if a bill is introduced and a request is made of the Judiciary Committee, then the committee notifies the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and all proceedings are stayed until action has been taken on the bill.

Mr. McCORMACK. I am glad to hear that, because that clarifies an honest misapprehension that existed in my mind and must have existed in the minds of other Members. We all have communications on this subject at some time or another, perhaps two or three times a year, and, frankly, I have written to friends of mine stating that while I would be glad to introduce a private bill and submit it to the committee, and I have asked them to give me the evidence in affidavit form to present to the subcom-to get a stay of deportation. It has been rather embarrassing. From now on I liga the inform

Mr. Speaker, the conference export e comes before the House bye in their endments which were offered by the Senate and adopted by the conferees. These amendments do not change the scope or substance of the bill. One provides that if any employee of the Centrel Intelligence Agency is on leave in the United States; he cannot be assigned to duty outside the agency. It is not the intention of the agency to use these employees for duty within the United States other than within the agency. They are simply brought back here for training and so on, as the functions are carried on. in the continental United States.

The other amendment provides that in addition to the approval of the Attorney General on the admission of any of these allens who may be brought in because of their high potential security value the alien must also be approved by the Commissioner of Immigration.

The bill was carefully considered in the committee, unanimously reported, and passed overwhelmingly in the House. It outlines and spells out the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency and attempts to build up a career service.

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous ques

The previous question was ordered. The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. MARC: NTONIO) there were-ayes 74, noes 0.

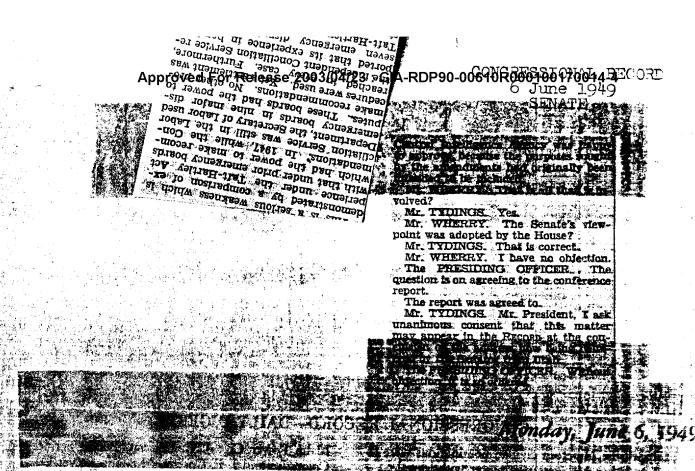

The conference report was agreed to. A motion to reconsider was laid on the private bills, and cleared

riations measure, and on zs opened on new armed-opted conferdministration

Daily Digest

HIGHLIGHTS

Senate debated Taft-Hartley repeal and adopted conference reports on CIA and Federal public buildings.

House passed 38 bills.

North Atlantic Pact and bills on antilynching, Virgin Islands, Alaska, private claims and immigration, public works, and U. S. broadcasts were ordered reported to Senate.

Bills regarding Swiss war claims, drug labeling, and the District of Columbia approved by House committees.

Conferees reach agreement on mining claims bill.

Senate

Chamber Action

1008, to define the application of the Federal Tride Commission Act and the Clayton Act to certain processes, was passed, and to request that House return the bill.

CIA: Senate adopted conference report on H. R. 1003. to provide for administration of Central Intelligence Agency (1997).

se bevies en near norman recommentation of milital profits a result month of milital and the control of the con Deaf fine Bill, as ioliows:

Be if senteries, fitch, These the Secretary of the Treasury is surfortsed and decoted to use of any money in the Treasury is confident to the fitch and the treasury is surformed to the surformers of the surformers of the surformers of the surformers of the treasure of the surformers of the fitch surformers of the treasure of the treasu read the bill, as follows: There being no objection, the Clerk for the relief of Robert A. Atlas. he Clerk called the bill (H. R. 4807)

William the American vote against the a

CMr. MARCANTONIO asked and given permission to revise and extend his.

Mr. SASSCER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Penn-sylvania [Mr. Walter] Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to proceed out of or-

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

Ivania? There was no objection There was no objection.
Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker; in colloquy which took place in the other body several days ago a Senator inquired of another Senator as to the reason why the Attorney General's recommendation pertaining to suspension of deportation was not being acted on in the House. The reply was that the House was not going along with the policy of the Senate. The fact of the matter is that under existing law where the Attorney General suspends the deportation of an allen under section (c) of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, it is incumbent on each body to review the action thus taken, and unless each body affirmatively approves of such suspension of deporta-tion, then the deportation is proceeded with. At the last session of the Congress our distinguished colleague, the gentleman from Maine [Mr. Fillows] gentieman from Maine LMF. Fellows; introduced legislation which had the purpose of giving each body the authority to review the action taken by the Attorney General, but did not make it incumbent on the House as well as the Senate to act affirmatively. The House of Representatives at this session passed conference attended by the ranking members of both sides of the Committee-on the Judiciary, it was agreed that pither body would have the authority to object to the Attorney General's ruling that neither body would be obliged at affirmatively. The Senate is The Senate adamant in its position, but my bill, H. R. 3875, similar to the Fellows bill of last year, is now pending in the Senate Committee on the Judiciary. Recently suggested a compromise amendment this bill and I sincerely hope that the other body will bring about its early Dassage, thus helping to break the log-am. We want to retain the power to practically the same bill. In an informal bject to the Attorney General's rulings, out the House does not want to be obliated to act affirmatively on nearly 2,000 ases per session. Certainly it seems to ne that Members of Congress, both of he House and Senate, should know what he real situation is.

Mr. VORYS. Mr. Speaker, will the entleman yield?

Mr. WALTER. I yield.
Mr. VORYS. This may not be on the ame subject, but I wanted to know hether there is a practice now to stay whether there is a practice now to stay eportations in cases where bills are atroduced. I understand there was a ractice for many years, but that practice is no longer followed by the immigration. ration authorities.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD 7 June 1949

The time of the g teman from Pennsylvania has expired.

M. Speaker I yield
the gentieman three additional infinites.

The Committee on Mr. WALTER Judiciary 2 years ago, when our distinguished colleague the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Michener] was chairman of the committee, reviewed the practice of staying deportations where a bill was introduced, and it was decided that unless the Member who introduced the bill requested a hearing, and we so notified the Immigration Service, the proceedings would continue. It was only in those cases where it was apparent that the Member intended to vigorously press for the enactment of the private legis-lation that deportation would be stayed. However, that is not the practice in the other body. There it is necessary only to introduce a bill in order to stay deportation. Incidentally, there have been a number of cases where the House has refused to intercede, and even after bills have been introduced and unfavorably acted upon by our committee, a Senator has introduced a bill, and the deportation of some alien who, in the judgment of the House Judiciary Committee ought to be deported, has been stayed.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. WALTER. I yield.
Mr. McCORMACK. Of course, when you introduce these bills, it takes quite a long time to have reports received from the appropriate agencies. That is correct, is it not? Mr. WALTER. Yes.

Mr. McCORMACK. I do know that it has created a rather compromising sit-uation for Members of the House who have introduced a bill to know that that of itself does not stay the deportation until an opportunity has been had to receive reports sought and hearings held.

Mr. WALTER. I do not think the gentleman is correct in that, because, if a bill is introduced and a request is made of the Judiciary Committee, then the committee notifies the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and all proceedings are stayed until action has been taken on the bill

Mr. McCORMACK. I am glad to hear that, because that clarifies an honest misapprehension that existed in my mind and must have existed in the minds of other Members. We all have communications on this subject at some time or another, perhaps two or three times a year, and, frankly, I have written to friends of mine stating that while I would be glad to introduce a private bill and submit it to the committee, and I have asked them to give me the evidence in affidavit form to present to the subcommittee, that they had better get somebody on the other side to introduce a bill to get a stay of deportation. It has been rather embarrassing. From now on I will utilize the information the gentleman has given me, and relieve that embarrassment to which I have been subjected.

The SPEAKER. The time of the gentleman from Pennsylvania has again expired.

Mr. SASSCER. Mr. Speaker, Lyield myself 3 minutes.

endments which were offered by the Schate and adopted by the conferees.

These amendments do not change the scope or substance of the bill. One provides that if any employee of the Central Intelligence Agency is on leave in the United States, he cannot be assigned to duty outside the agency. It is not the intention of the agency to use these employees for duty within the United States other than within the agency. They are simply brought back here for training. and so on, as the functions are carried on in the continental United States

The other amendment provides that in addition to the approval of the Attorney General on the admission of any of these allens who may be brought in because of their high potential security value the alien must also be approved by the Commissioner of Immigration.

The bill was carefully considered in the committee, unanimously reported, and passed overwhelmingly in the House. It outlines and spells out the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency, and at-tempts to build up a career service.

2

12.2

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous ques-

The previous question was o dered. The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. MARCANTONIO) there were—ayes 74, noes 0.

The conference report was agreed to. A motion to reconsider was laid on the private bills, and cleared

Lativ. M. .

riations measure, and on

gs opened on new armed-

200mm。12

opted conferiministration · 7514-7515

Septoval FA Respess 200 May 282 Despite 02:182 (Septoval DADIO14)

Daily Digest

HIGHLIGHTS

Senate passed State, Justice, Commerce appropriations.

House passed International Children's Fund bill, 57 private bills, and cleared Central Intelligence Agency measure for the President.

Senate groups acted on general consolidated appropriations measure, and on Federal Property and Administrative Services Act.

B-36 inquiry resolution reported to the House; hearings opened on new armedservices pay bill.

Central Intelligence Agency: House adopted conference report on H. R. 2663, to provide for administration of Central Intelligence Agency.

Pages 7514-7513

MALTOCALD HTGOKD 6 June 1949

1590 p. 1590 of 1590 sound; Sunday 1901 sound; Sund

willndst clause Zel rule XIII; reports of committees were delivered to the Clerk for printing and reference to the proper calendar, as follows:

calendar, as follows:

Mr. DURHAM: Committee of conference.

H. R. 2663. A bill to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established pursuant to section 102. National Security Act of 1947, and for other purposes (Rept. No. 725). Ordered to be printed.

Mr. MADDEN: Committee on Rules. House Resolution 299. Besolution 299

Chamber Action House of Representatives

Bills Introduced: Fifteen public bills, H. R. 4997-5011; fourteen private bills, H. R. 5012-5025; and one resolution, H. Res. 239, were introduced. Pages 7439, 7458-7459

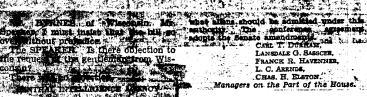

Bills Reported: Reports were made as follows:

Conference report on H. R. 2663, to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency (H. Rept. 725) in Strang Transaction of A again, tons

9 June 1949

Approved For Release 2006 to the Committee of the third that that committee of the third present to the President for his day present to the President, for his approval, a bill of the

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD 6 June 1949

Mr. SASSCER Service Miles Microsite Conference report and statement on log bill (H. R. 2663) to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established pursuant to section 102. National Security Act of 1947, and for other purposes:

M. E. TYDINGS, RICHARD B. RUSSELL, HARRY F. BYRD, STYLES BRIDGES, CHAN GURNEY,
Managers on the Part of the Senate.

STATEMENT

The managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H. R. 2663) to provide for the administration of the Central Intelligence Agency, established pursuant to section 102, National Security Act of 1947, and for other purposes, submit the following statement in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the conferees and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

the action agreed upon by the conferees and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

Amendment No. 1: The House bill provided that officers and employees of the Central Intelligence Agency who are in the continental United States on leave should be evaluable for work or duties in the agency or elsewhere. The Senate amendment provided that officers or employees of the Agency who are in the continental United States on leave should be available for work or duties only in the Agency or for training or for reorientation for work. The conference agreement adopts the provisions of the Senate amendment.

Amendments Nos. 2 and 3: The House bill provided that whenever the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and the Attorney General should determine that the entry of a particular alien into the United States for permanent residence is in the interest of national security or essential to the furtherance of the national intelligence mission, such alien and his immediate family could be given entry into the United States for permanent residence without regard to their inadmissibility under the immigration or any other laws and regulations and without regard to their failure to comply with such laws and regulations and without regard to their failure to comply with such laws and regulations pertaining to admissibility. The House bill limited the number of aliens admissible under such authority to not more than 100 in any one fiscal year. The effect of Senate amendments Nos. 2 and 3 was to add the Commissioner of Immigration to the officials who would determine the continuous and a was to add the Commissioner of Immigration to the officials who would determine the continuous and the commissioner of Immigration to the officials who would determine the contract of the contr The effect of Senate ameniments Nos. 2 and 3 was to add the Commissioner of Immiration to the officials who would determine a custant, Intelligence a great 19. and as the first part 19. and as other part 19. and as other

June 1949

O TO THE PRESIDERY from the Committee of the that that this day present to the s approval, a bill of the owing title:

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD
9 March 1949

