MR. JOEL MARGOLIS OF THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS

★ ★ ★

As usual, there would be no entertainment tonight but for the help of several old and new friends. We are especially indebted to:

MR. STEPHEN A. BAFFERY, Producer, Preservation Hall Jazz Band.

MR. HAL DAVID, President, and MR. LOUIS E. WEBER, Assistant to the President, of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

MR. VICTOR FUENTEALBA, President of the American Federation of Musicians.

THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS, for temporarily waiving MR. JOEL MARGOLIS to coach our team.

We also gratefully acknowledge the cooperation of the Performer's Unions through THEATRE AUTHORITY, of which MR. HAROLD M. HOFFMAN is President.

The Show

The White House Correspondents' Association welcomes
President and Mrs. Carter to an evening of zest and joy.

Journalism Prizes

Merriman Smith Memorial Awards

Originated in 1972 as one prize, there now are two awards — a $500 first prize and a $250 second prize — for excellence in Presidential news coverage under deadline pressure in the tradition of the late Merriman Smith, United Press International White House Correspondent.

Raymond Clapper Memorial Awards

These awards — $1000 first prize and $500 second prize — have been presented annually since 1944. Entries are not limited to any one field. The only standard is excellence in the tradition of Raymond Clapper, Scripps-Howard correspondent who died in a 1944 plane crash while serving as a war correspondent in the Pacific.

Worth Bingham Memorial Award

A $1000 prize for newspaper or magazine reporting that investigates and analyzes situations of national significance in the Washington political community, this award has been presented each year since 1967 in memory of journalist Robert Worth Bingham.

Barnet Nover Memorial Awards

Two prizes — $500 to a news correspondent and $250 to a television or radio analyst — are being awarded this year for the first time. The awards honor the late Washington bureau chief of the Denver Post; syndicated columnist; associate editor of the Washington Post; and associate editor of the Buffalo Evening News.
