CIA... where OVERSEAS ASSIGNMENTS

lead your career to challenge

We have unique career opportunities for unique individuals. We want to offer you opportunities to use your foreign language skills and your specialized cultural and overseas experience as well as your other talents. You may be one of those select people qualified to join the Central Intelligence Agency in our Intelligence Officer Corps.

These entry-level opportunities require a special combination of qualities. You must be able to deal successfully with a variety of people in a wide range of situations, communicate effectively both orally and in writing... and exhibit a strong personal commitment and high standards of professionalism. An interest in foreign affairs is crucial. Fluency in a foreign language, or a strong aptitude for learning foreign languages, is absolutely essential for a successful career.

Foreign travel, residence, graduate study, or military service; international business or other non-academic experience abroad; or any other relevant special skills would be advantageous for these positions. U.S. citizenship and a college degree with a solid academic record are also required.

If you're interested in the challenge and excitement of a CIA career overseas, please send a resume to the address below with a cover letter explaining your unique qualifications. Include your day and evening phone numbers, please. Entry-level salaries for these positions range from $22,000 to $34,000, depending on qualifications.
