

ASSOCIATED PRESS
1 July 1985

LA TIMES, AP REPORTER AMONG IAPA AWARD WINNERS
MIAMI

EXCERPTED

STAT

The Los Angeles Times and an Associated Press reporter are among top winners of 1985 Inter American Press Association awards.

The Los Angeles Times will receive an award recognizing continuing attention to Inter-American affairs for a series of articles about Central America.

Robert Parry of the AP's Washington bureau won the award for spot news for his exclusive stories about a CIA manual that advised U.S.-backed Nicaraguan rebels how to use sabotage and assassination.

* * * * *