The Honorable William Webster, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

I think that you will be pleased to learn that [redacted] of the Office of Public Affairs did a superb job when he visited our campus last week to speak about "Secret Intelligence In Democratic Societies." His evening lecture was attended by 100 persons who were most interested in what he had to say. He handled a few hecklers with great dignity and finesse and participated in a productive question and answer session that lasted well beyond the time we had allocated for his talk.

On the following day, he spoke to an undergraduate class studying issues associated with nuclear proliferation and national security. Again, [redacted] showed that he knew how to engage students intellectually and lead a productive discussion.

STAT

During the course of his short visit, [redacted] also had an opportunity to meet with members of our faculty involved in international affairs, history and science. The discussion was informative and interesting.

We were honored to have him visit and thought that you would like to know what an effective ambassador he is for the agency and the government. We hope that it will be possible for him to visit us again in the future.

Sincerely,

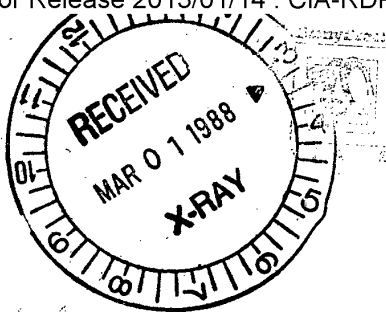

Lester G. Paldy
