Dear Mr. Stinson:

I appreciate your invitation to speak to the Palm Beach County Bar Association. Unfortunately, given my unpredictable schedule I cannot give you a firm speaking date. I know that the Bar Association must plan its events in advance, and I think it best that I decline your very kind offer.

I wish you and all the members of the Association a most successful program.

Dear Mr. Webster:

The Palm Beach County Bar Association, one of the largest and most active county bar associations in Florida, cordially invites you to speak at one of our monthly meetings and to be our guest for the week-end at the Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach on the Atlantic Ocean (see enclosed brochure). We would also pay travel expenses for both you and your spouse to West Palm Beach.

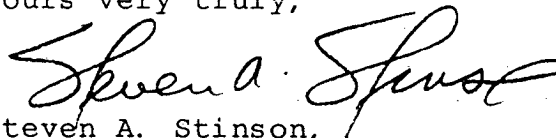

Our Association currently has more than 1800 members and our meetings are open to the public. We take special pride in presenting outstanding speakers whose comments would be of special interest both to the legal profession as well as to our community as a whole. In the past we have had U.S. Supreme Court Justices, Cabinet Members and other nationally recognized individuals as our speakers.

I have enclosed a list of our upcoming meeting dates. However, we very much want you to accept our invitation to speak and therefore we can be somewhat flexible with our scheduling, subject to meeting room availability and the ability to publicize your speech.

We sincerely hope you will accept our hospitality and we look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible. For publicity purposes and room reservations, we need as much notice as you can give us. Please remember that during the winter months the Breakers books up far in advance. Our climate's reputation is well deserved. Do come and enjoy some sunshine with us!

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Webster:

On behalf of the more than 1,600 members of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, I invite you to be our guest speaker at one of our monthly meetings. The dates for future meetings are attached.
