WEEKLY REPORT FOR THE DCI

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER

WEEK ENDING 20 MAY 1988

1988

- We transmitted the congressionally directed report on the Agency's health insurance program to the Committee chairmen this week. This fulfills the commitment made to Chairman Stokes at last week's meeting with the House Intelligence Committee leadership.

1989

- The Comptroller's office is preparing appeals of Authorization Committee actions on the FY 1989 budget. These appeals will be sent to the Committees early next week as background for staff discussions in preparation for the Authorization Conference.

1990-91

- The Deputy Comptroller briefed the Agency's Information Systems Board on planned investments for communications and computer processing in FY 1990-91.

25X1

- The Comptroller's office is meeting with appropriate Agency elements to discuss the IG report on leasing vs. purchasing computer equipment. Key parts of the IG report, which was directed by the House Appropriations Committee, will be summarized in a report to the Intelligence and Appropriations Committees.
