The Honorable William H. Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

I am writing to request the transcript of an executive session of the ~~Committee on Foreign Relations~~ held on ~~November 26, 1973~~. At this session, former Central Intelligence Director William Colby provided a briefing on the situation in Chile.

Since 1973, the Central Intelligence Agency has held the only copies of the transcript for safekeeping. The Foreign Relations Committee now wishes to review this transcript in connection with an ongoing investigation of its Subcommittee on Terrorism, Narcotics and International Operations. I understand that this transcript is considered secret and am prepared to accept it on a classified basis. The document will be retained in an appropriately secure facility.

Your cooperation in expediting my request will be greatly appreciated.

With every good wish.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
