

STATINTL

1. Drafted letter to Senator Myers informing him that application of [REDACTED] had been rejected. Sent 26 Feb.

STATINTL

2. Drafted letter to Senator Chavez informing him that application of [REDACTED] had been rejected. Sent 26 Feb.

STATINTL

3. Drafted letter to Rep. Lesinski informing him that application of [REDACTED] had been rejected. Sent 26 Feb.

STATINTL

4. Drafted letter to Senator Langer in reply to his re application of [REDACTED] Promised to let him know outcome. Sent 26 Feb.

STATINTL

5. Director of CIG, Chief of Legislative Liaison and [REDACTED] called on Senator Aiken as per appointment. Senator Aiken, through a secretary, expressed regret at his inability to meet with General Vandenberg at this time. He suggested that the Director discuss the matter with [REDACTED] of his staff, which the Director declined to do prior to talking with Senator Aiken. Secretary stated that it had been an unavoidable mix-up and that a member of his staff had been instructed to call the General in this effect, also that Senator Aiken was extremely upset but unable to leave the hearings over which he was presiding. The Director thereupon went to [REDACTED] and, after a conference with the Admiral, instructed that a letter be prepared setting

STATINTL

(OVER)

STATINTL

STATINTL

Approved For Release 2000/06/26 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100020043-5 fort. Approved For Release 2000/06/26 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100020043-5 to Senator Aiken be prepared for submission to the White House.