Office of Legislative Counsel

Monday - 25 May 1959

1. Talked with William Macomber, State Department, and advised him that the DCI was going to see Representative Emilio G. Daddario (D., Conn.) this Thursday on [redacted] Macomber indicated Daddario proposed to send a letter to the [redacted] government. State is not objecting to such a letter but would prefer that it not go.

Also mentioned to Macomber my proposed meeting with Senator John Sherman Cooper.

2. Talked with John Hogland in State on the [redacted] case. It was agreed that the report of this matter furnished to State by CI Staff would be utilized by Hogland to discuss the case with Representative Laurence Curtis. Depending on the outcome of this discussion, we will determine an appropriate approach to Senator Kennedy on the same case.
