	CONFIDENTIAL
· •	OIT-0254-88
	8 MAR 1988
EMORANDUM FOR:	Director of Current Production and Analytical Support, DI
ROM:	Edward J. Maloney Director of Information Technology
SUBJECT:	Electronic Release of Cables
REFERENCE:	Your memo, dtd 27 Jan 88, Same Subject
issues to provid there are some a which should be	inary evaluation of your requirement indicates that technical de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while the engineering and operational solution.
issues to provide there are some of which should be proceeding to the contract of the contract	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution.
issues to provide there are some in which should be proceeding to the sound state of the	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, who coal Point Officer for this project is who issues to provide there are some which should be proceeding to the solution of	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, who coal Point Officer for this project is who issues to provide there are some in which should be proceeding to the solution of the solution	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, cocal Point Officer for this project is who at secure He will be supported by issues to provide there are some that the should be proceeding to the should be arrangement. The Formary be reached who will additional to the should be sh	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, coal Point Officer for this project is who at secure He will be supported by diress management requirements and security issues. Mr.
issues to provide there are some of which should be proceeding to the solution of the solution	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, call Point Officer for this project is who at secure He will be supported by diress management requirements and security issues. Mr. reached at secure
issues to provide there are some in which should be proceeding to the solution of the solution	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, pocal Point Officer for this project is who at secure He will be supported by diress management requirements and security issues. Mr. reached at secure issues to provide there are some which should be proceeding to the state of the sta	de the requested service are not insurmountable. However, management and security issues, alluded to in the reference, addressed in conjunction with your representatives while me engineering and operational solution. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, social Point Officer for this project is secure. He will be supported by diress management requirements and security issues. Mr. reached at secure. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, social Point Officer for this project is secure. Who at secure who are secured by directly into the project is secured at secure. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative, so who are secured at secure who address your requirement and have to work directly with your representative. The formed a working group to address your requirement and have to work directly with your representatives while the project is secured at the project is

25X1 OIT/TSS Distribution: Orig - addressee 1 - OC/CSD 1 - OS/ISG 1 - D/OIT2 - OIT Registry 25X1 1 -1 - C/TSS Chrono 25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1