Secretary of the Navy
Washington, D. C. 20350

Dear Will:

We mourn your loss, which is truly our own. They stood for us, they assumed risks for us, and we will be forever in their debt.

Your warm and sensitive handling of this tragedy has been, I know, of great comfort to the families of the men who gave their lives. Our thoughts are with you.

Sincerely,

William H. Webster

Dear Carl:

I write to convey to you the sense of sadness and loss that we in the Intelligence Community share with you and those under your command. The tragedy aboard the IOWA touches us all.

I recall having dinner aboard the IOWA at the time of the celebration of the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor. I was given a tour of the same gun turret and met many of the seamen who were assigned to duty there. Our hearts go out to the families of those lost in line of duty. But if my conversations with the men then on duty are any indication, they were doing what they wanted to do, were proud of what they were doing, and believed that their mission was important for us all. Indeed it was.

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
