Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Now that your summer assignment with the Headquarters Engineering Division has ended, I'd like to thank you for helping us with equipment surveys, the Wang Files, and moving boxes and replacing tiles in the Data Center, in addition to performing various other useful duties. All of the things you did are greatly appreciated.

I trust that you are pleased with your accomplishments and that you consider them a valuable learning experience. We enjoyed having you here and wish you good luck as you start your junior year at the University of Virginia.
