Dear Jeeb,

I appreciate your note and proposal regarding extension of a Metro service to Dulles International Airport. We are currently in negotiation with the developers of the Reston facility and the potential for our expansion and a long-term presence in Reston is uncertain. Consequently, I don't believe the letter that you suggest would be helpful or appropriate at this time.

I do wish you success with your efforts to expand the Metro service and hopefully in the future I can assist in some way.

Sincerely,

Bill

William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: R. M. Huffstutler
Deputy Director for Administration SUBJECT: Note from Jeeb Halaby

1. Rental charges on the facilities which we currently occupy in Reston are fixed under the existing lease through 1994. The chances of further expansion of these facilities now appear to be minimal and I don't feel that it would be wise or prudent to offer a voluntary increase in the rent which we currently pay. If the Metro expansion to Dulles does occur and we extend our lease in 1994, I'm sure the developer will attempt to negotiate an increased rental amount based on the enhanced property value.

2. I recommend that the attached letter be forwarded to Mr. Halaby.

Dear Bill -

As we discussed at The White House the other night I am sending you a rough draft of a letter you might be able to send in suitably revised form to your landlord of the Reston facility.

It could be extremely helpful in getting DART on the rails and your colleagues to read from work in a better mood.
