STAT

[Redacted]

Enclosed the expense reports on our mission to Panama. The overall expenses fall well within the guideline you had spelled out in your letter of July 27, but since either Steve or I paid some of the bills, we request that payment be made to each of us as indicated in the respective reports.

STAT

The trip itself was enormously productive. [Redacted] was extremely helpful and set up meetings with all of the editors as well as with a number of the most experienced monitors. We were also able to interview personnel at the US embassy, including the ambassador, Ambler Moss. Satisfied customers, we might mention in passing.

STAT

Because of our interviews at the embassy we stayed on through Wednesday morning, taking the afternoon Braniff plane home. Through a quirk in ticketing we still submit only the cut-rate $367, rather than the ordinary tourist flight cost of $476.

We have spent this day in plotting out the parameters of the report and hope to have same in your hands before the first of September.

It occurs to us that the October meeting of all the field editors might be an ideal time to make a seminar presentation of our findings and recommendations. That might be something to keep in mind.

Thanks for all of your help in setting up this most important aspect of our investigation.

Sincerely,

Christopher G. Trump
