incident, maintaining washington keeps inventing new explanations in order to stimulate anti-soviet hysteria, but it has had little success in shaping world reaction to incident, pointing out there is no doubt that kal plane's flight over soviet territory was a planned provocation and a pretext for a large-scale anti-soviet campaign, briefly quoting andropov statement of 28

45 valentin sakharov "dgb (frg trade union federation) conf for peace and disarmament," informing about this conference which began in cologne, frg, on 4 october. sakharov summarizes the opening speech by dgb chairman ernst breit under the slogan "no new nuclear missiles for our country." this slogan reflects the view of the majority of frg citizens. on 5 october a 5-minute monition for peace was observed all over the frg, organized by dgb.
 in his speech, ernst breit emphasized that the plicy of deterrence which produces more and more insecurity can be stopped merely by disarmament. thus, disarmament has become a urgent necessity. all peoples of europe are bound to come out for disarmament and cooperation among people, as proposed time and again by the soviet union and other socialist countries. (5 min german 1700)
