1. (S/NF/SK) INTERVIEWER TASKING:

3. (S/NF/SK) INCLEMENCIES: There were no reportable incidents or anomalies which may have influenced the data provided in this session. This session was unscheduled and conducted only after Source volunteered to participate.

4. (S/NF/SK) SUMMARY: Source furnished the attached summary which was initially prepared in longhand and subsequently transcribed by Her into the typewritten copy attached to this report. The completeness of the final version has been compared to the original and all changes, deletions and corrections have been verified as accurate and acceptable by the Interviewer. In addition to the information provided in the summary, Source provided additional information during the actual session which was inadvertently omitted from Her summary and which may impact on the final analysis of the data provided. That additional data is provided below in raw unevaluated form:

SG1A

a. (S/NF/SK) The movement of the object, [redacted] was further described by Source as ~~taking less than one day, occurring in the near future and probably no more than, "15-20 days away from the original site".~~ The specific reference to the numeric distances is normally unreliable in the Remote Viewing technology and should not be taken as fact. Of special significance, however, is the fact that Source perceived the object as being moved to a more isolated area ~~where it is openly displayed and no longer hidden.~~ Further, the object is no longer secured within a fenced and guarded compound but is now in an operational mode and reliant upon the actual crew for security.

SG1A

b. (S/NF/SK) Source provided a curious set of descriptions concerning the presence of water near or adjacent to [redacted] new location. On one hand She reported a large body of water, described as a "passageway", which people use for transport purposes. On the other hand She was as equally sure of a ~~second~~ smaller body of water, "located near the object", that She perceived in terms of a recreation area. Efforts both during and in post-session interviews were unsuccessful in clarifying these images or "dowsing" their location on an unmarked sketch map of the Iranian coast. A copy of that sketch map bearing Source's markings is attached to this report for references. In the "dowsing" exercise, Source was further unable to provide locations of other significant object, locations or sites discussed during the actual session. The sketch was not labeled and as a result, Source "dowsed" land based object as being located on the Persian Gulf waters and bodies of water were identified as the land masses on the sketch. Both the object and the town referenced in Her session were indicated as being in an area which would place them several kilometers out into the waters of the Gulf.

SG1A

c. (S/NF/SK) In describing the, "new location" (future location?), of the object, Source perceived the presence of a hot climate, near water, some trees and a perception of long bladed grasses. This last reference may have a description of papyrus or marsh reeds and may offer a clue to the specific area since such flora would probably only be found in a few areas along the targeted coastal regions. Additionally, people may come to this area for water recreation at a site where they may be a white sand beach. This may present another valuable analytic clue as to the location. Finally, near the site there is a small village or town with few roads, (and those are for the most part all weather dirt roads) and foot trails. This town was perceived as celebrating a regional or perhaps even a local municipal holiday with great festivities.

5. (S/NF/SK) COMMENTS: This session did not generate the excitement felt by the Interviewer following the initial session. Source tended to, "bounce around" in Her attempts to identify objects of significance and in doing so She may have overlayed many impressions as though they were only one single perception. Efforts to direct Her focus to more site relevant data was only marginally successful and failed to provide those significant benchmarks/object/cues which will be required to perform a "map resection" or "map tracking" exercise. There were no revelations, "Eiffel Towers", "Grand Canyons" or "Angel Falls" by which the Interviewer could lead the Source through the session and, indeed, a review of the actual map of the area shows that there are not any such "kickers" in reality in that area to aid us in our endeavors. Future sessions will concentrate on efforts to gather additional data on the area, regardless of how trivial, in an attempt to positively identify at least ~~one~~ site of the [redacted] Until that occurs, there is little to be gained from explorations of the future intentions since the target references, [redacted]

I first saw the object in the same location. I could see men working with the object. It was hot. The object was placed in a high heavy metal "U" shaped frame. I then could see men working at taking down and I could see the object being moved. It was hard work and I could see a hauling or a lugging.

Ditto → The object was moved to a vicinity very close by. It was still hot. In this new location, I could see the object standing and it will be blocked off but will not be inside the fencing where the men work. The men who work here will not be concerned with the object. They work in a small structure and have other work to do and will not be concerned with the object.

In this new area, to the north of me, I could see a housing company. It was red brick building joining each other in lines and men lived here. The living conditions were not that good. Then I got the impression of a very significant waterway or passageway that was used for transportation rights. This waterway had significant historical value. I could see men working here and it was used for transportation.

To the west, I sensed the business section of the town. This is where people bought clothes, shoes, and food. I sensed poverty here. I sensed that the people hold a celebration here that has something to do with only this area's history. The festival is not an international event. I also sensed you could buy cars here. Then I said the word "cheese." I sensed some type of propaganda here. A corruption.

To my south, I could see green land and trees. This area looked manicured. It was better taken care of than the other areas I have seen.

To my east, I saw a smaller body of water with white sand. This was used for recreational purposes. From here you could walk to the object. Some people park their cars here and walk to the object.

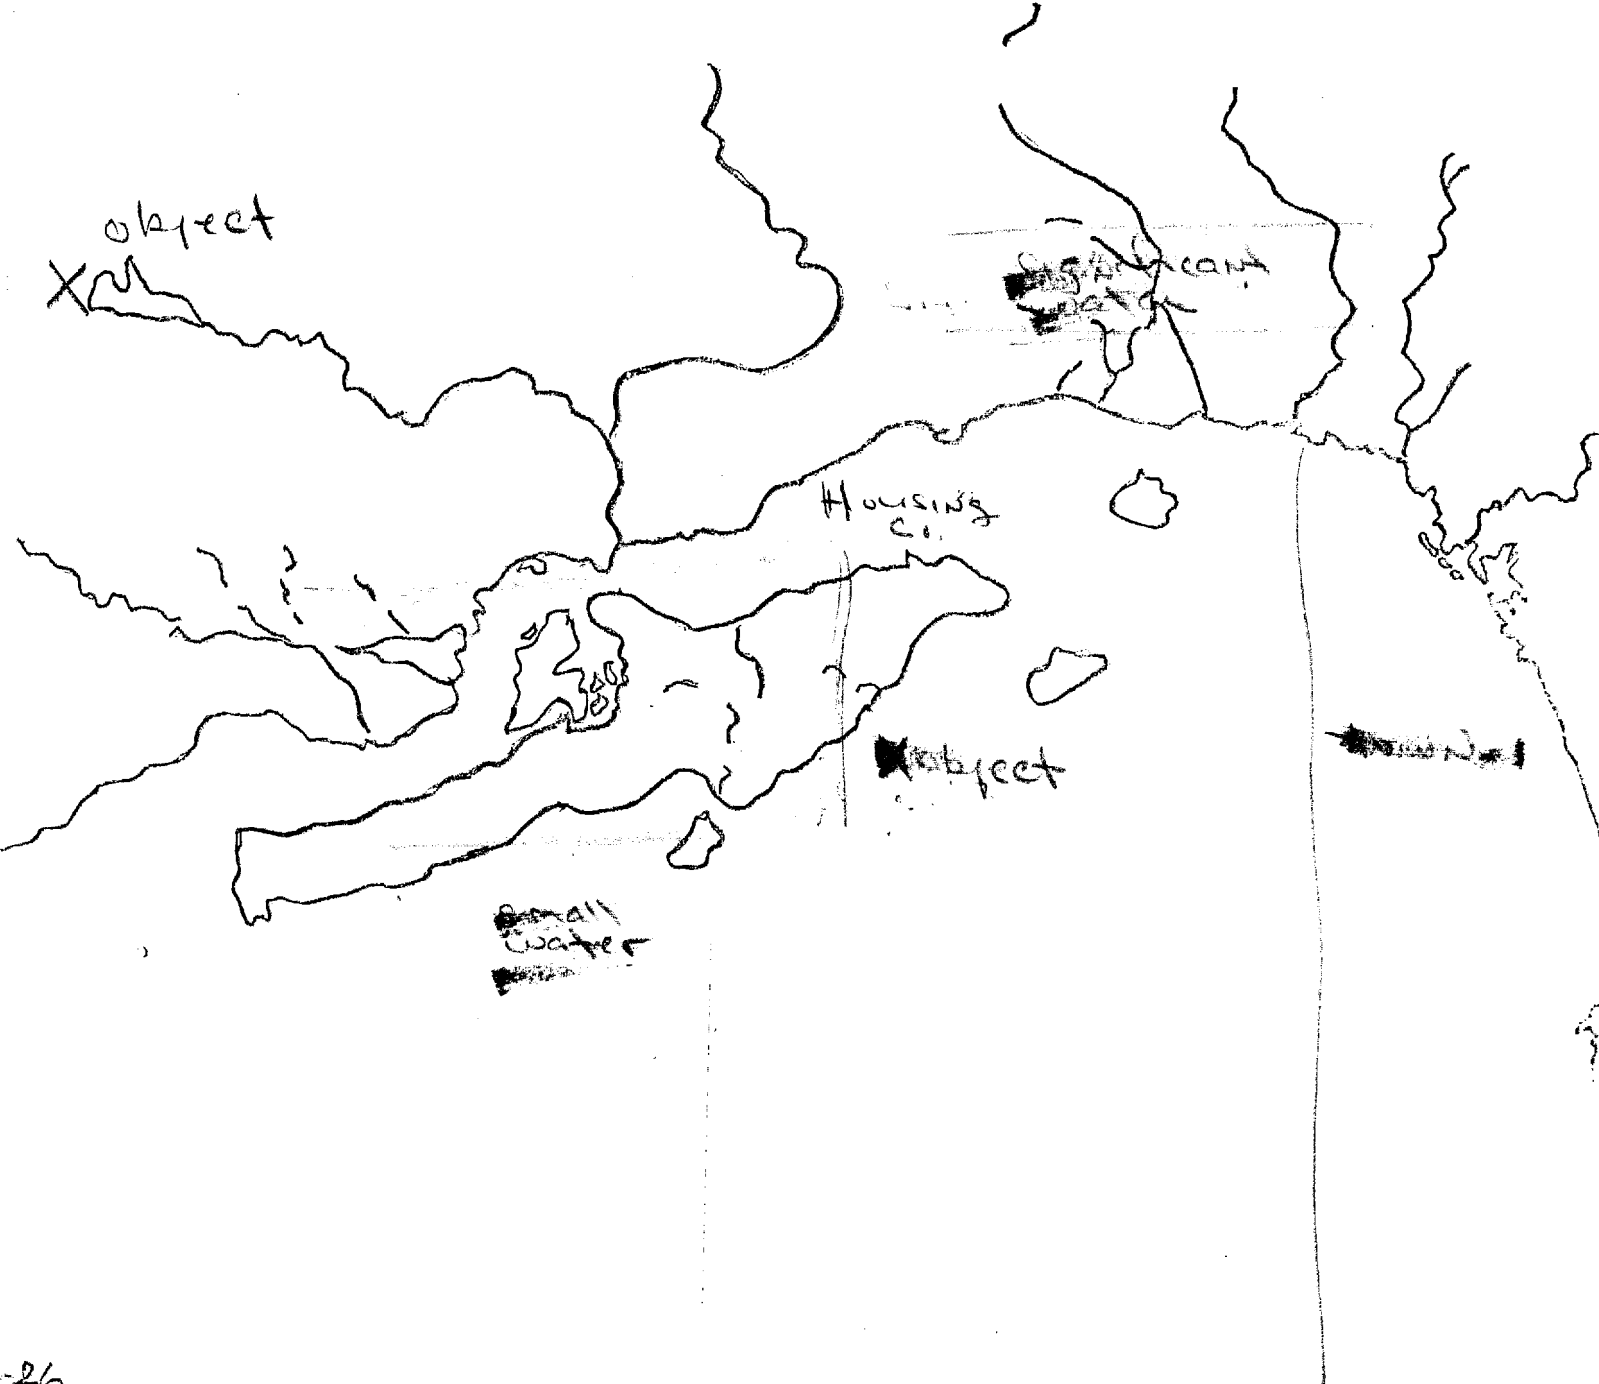

After awhile I got the feeling that I was in a tropical area and I could sense tropical fish.

I first saw the object in the same location. I could see men working with the object. It was hot. I then had the feeling of the object being moved to a nearby vicinity. I could see the hauling or lugging of this very large object. Someone always stayed with it and it was ~~be~~ relocated within the same day, very nearby.

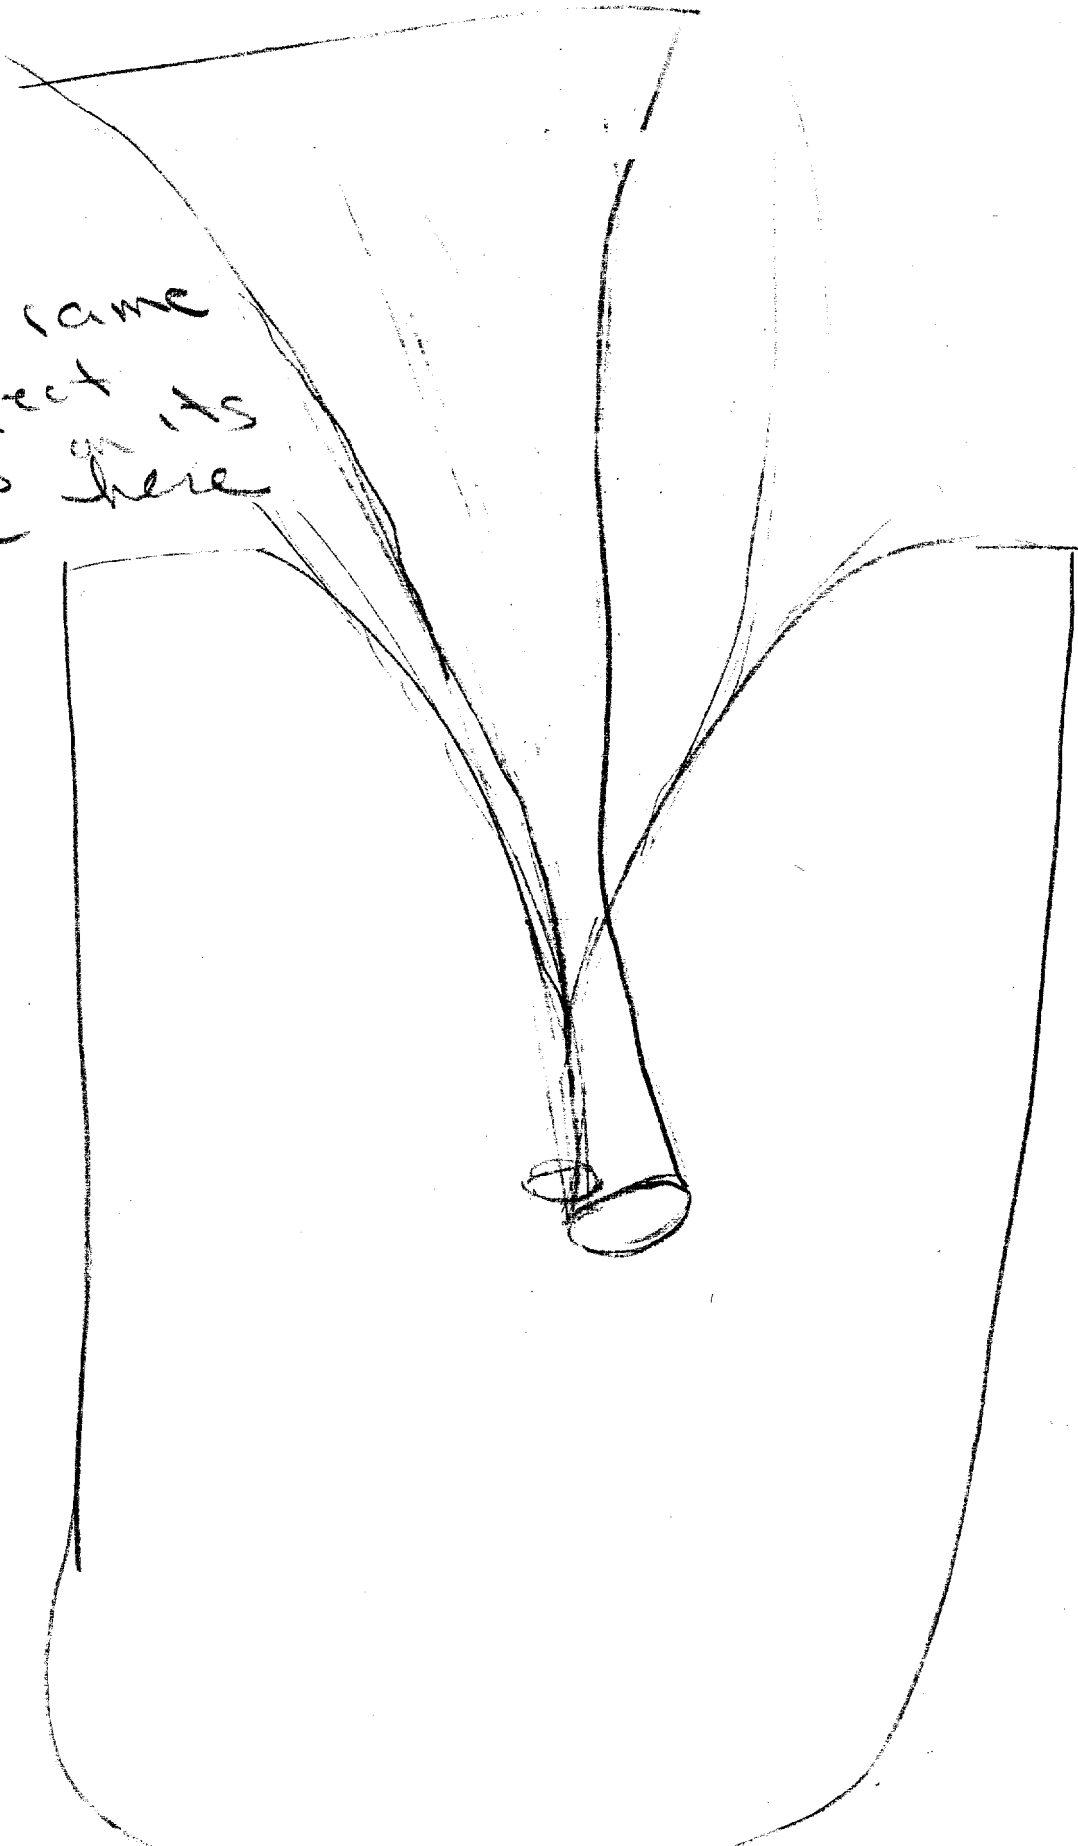

In the new location, it was still hot. The object was standing and it will be blocked but it will not be inside the fencing where the men work. In this location, there are men here working but not as many men and they will be working on something different and will not be concerned with the object. They are a smaller group of men working in a smaller structure and other work must be accomplished.
