[REDACTED] continue to attend monthly classes on dowsing. From 31 March 1989 to 2 April 1989 inclusively, [REDACTED] attended a three-day seminar presented by the Discovery Engineering International (DEI) in the Washington D.C. area. Through tonal indicators, they were able to achieve a state of relaxation at the theta level of consciousness that appears to facilitate personal creative breakthroughs. A tonal indicator was utilized as a sort of beacon to recognize and remember the theta state of consciousness.
