Summary of Information

Site location is a group of many, crowded together, light colored, box-shaped, flat-roofed structures or buildings on a prominent terrain feature, interspersed with greenery and vegetation. (AOL Mediterranean village on a hilltop). There are popping sounds and reverberations in the background, and now and then things seem to shake. Subjects of interest are confined to a small, austere, stuffy, masonry room; they have feelings of anxiety, fear, claustrophobia, desperation, distress, pain, despondency, and seem unwell. Impression that at least two, and probably all three are alive but not well. One seems virtually comatose, only occasionally being marginally aware of his surroundings. They have no shoes, are wearing baggy, ragged clothing, and are unshaven. There was an AOL impression of someone, angry, throwing open the door and waving a weapon about while he fired. No impression as to impact of this action, or if impression is valid at all. Dowsing exercise placed location south east of Beirut, approx one mile north of presidential palace.
