CIA resilient,
acting chief says

Acting CIA Director Richard Kerr told retired agents Saturday that the agency is resilient and will survive recent criticism and allegations of wrongdoing.

He made the remarks to veterans of the CIA's predecessor agency, the Office of Strategic Services, a day after the CIA's former chief of covert operations was indicted on 10 counts of lying and obstructing justice.

Clair George, the No. 3 CIA official from 1984 to 1987, was indicted Friday by a federal grand jury impaneled by Iran-Contra special prosecutor Lawrence E. Walsh.
