Courthouse on Foley Square. The demonstration which is scheduled for late afternoon will focus attention on motions pending before the California court to set bail for Davis. This motion and others will be presented by her attorneys on 16 March at the Marin County Courthouse in California. Other noteworthy motions are for dismissal of the indictment because of improper Grand Jury selection and because of prejudicial pretrial publicity. (Source: Daily World 11 Mar '71)

*18 March, Boston

The Student Mobilization Committee, the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice, and Youth Against War and Fascism plan to demonstrate at Boston on 18 March during the visit of Vice President Agnew to that city. The nature of the demonstration is unknown, but civil disobedience and peaceful, nonviolent action have been discussed in planning sessions. (Source: FBI 10 Mar 1971, 10 Mar 71)

*20 March, Helena, Montana

The chairman of the Montana March for Victory for an Honorable Peace in Vietnam has advised that the Montana group will demonstrate at the State Capital on the above date. This organization is a chapter of the national organization of Rev. Carl McIntire. Reportedly the Montana chapter will also take part in a scheduled march at Washington, D.C. on 8 May. *3 April, Fresno, California

It has been reported that the National Chicano Moratorium organization will demonstrate at Fresno during the first week in April. April 3 has been mentioned for possibly violent demonstrations by the Brown Berets, a militant Mexican-American group. (S-100-11111-2374 (S) 10-71)

*3-4 April, Washington, D.C.

An organization named the Third World Task Force Against the War in Southeast Asia is planning demonstrations at Washington, D.C. during the above period. According to a spokesman for the organization, a teach-in will be scheduled on 2 April to "educate third world people about the connections between the war against Asians in Vietnam and the war on third world peoples in the U.S." Third world people are described as "all people of color in the U.S."

Plans call for a massive demonstration at Meridian Hill Park at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, 3 April. This demonstration will be followed by a march down 14th Street to Lafayette Park and end with a noon rally there. On 4 April a memorial service for Dr. Martin L. King is planned at an as yet undetermined site in Anacostia.

Among the local people supporting this demonstration are Jeanne Walton, leader of the D.C. Committee to Free Angela Davis; Imagene Williams, a religious activist from the Church of What's Happening Now; and Charles W. Cheng, member of the Washington
