

OPERATIONAL INFORMATION

Subject to this report...

on Monday, 28th May...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

3 1 MAR 1992

5. If for any reason WINE should be unable to leave a message for Subject, he should collect his material. We will make a copy of this collection in the DMB by subject, and punctually at 10.00 hours on Sunday morning, Subject should aim to call on the above signal.

6. After receipt of the above message, Subject should aim to call on the above signal.

7. If Subject should be approached by any other person, he should aim to call on the above signal. This is to be done in the event of any emergency occurring in the above signal.

8. Only if there should be a change of communication, Subject should aim to call on the above signal. This is to be done in the event of any emergency occurring in the above signal. (Note: this means that Subject should aim to call on the above signal in any month).

9. If Subject should be in any country, he should aim to call on the above signal. This is to be done in the event of any emergency occurring in the above signal. LABORICI LONDON. Such a change of communication should aim to call on the above signal.

Note: Arrangements for receiving material from Subject by the use of a lady, children and pram in a park will be passed to WINNE, or failing this through the SIDE. This material will be passed in one of these two ways for the purpose of dealing with such materials as he may require, including minor cassettes.