1. During the first week of March 1954 Luis Felipe BELLOCRIN, director of the weekly newspaper, La Nacion, was arrested and detained for three days by Venezuelan security forces. According to Source, Subject was detained because of articles appearing in the 15 February 1954 issue of La Nacion concerning the assassination of the anti-Trujillo leader, Andres REQUENA in New York. The articles state that the publication of REQUENA's book, "Cementerio sin Cruces" was the reason for REQUENA being killed. Source states that BELLOCRIN was arrested because of complaints of the Dominican Republic Embassy.
