

20 February 1973

NLF MR Case No. 94-157

Document No. #51

1. QUESTION:

Who was the Station Chief in Chile during calendar year 1970?

ANSWER:

[REDACTED] was the CIA Station Chief in Chile from [REDACTED] to 12 November 1970.

1.5(c)
1.6(d)(1)

During this period [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

1.5(c)
1.6(d)(1)

2. QUESTION:

What was Mr. Broe's exact title during 1970 and what were his responsibilities?

ANSWER:

Mr. Broe was Chief of the Western Hemisphere
Division with the responsibility for directing CIA's covert activities in Latin America to include the Caribbean area. Mr. Broe became the Inspector General of CIA on 1 February 1972.

Photocopy from Gerald R. Ford Library

3. QUESTION: Will Mr. Broe and the Station Chief be available to the Subcommittee for questioning?

ANSWER: No.

4. QUESTION: If Mr. Broe and the Station Chief are not made available, will other CIA spokesmen be available to discuss the Agency's operations and involvements in Chile in 1970 and under what ground rules?

ANSWER: CIA is prepared to be helpful and to this extent the DCI would be prepared to work with the Subcommittee on a statement which CIA could make before the Committee and which would deal with the central issue of the 1970 political situation in Chile. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

1.5(c)
1.6(d)(1)

5. QUESTION:

[REDACTED]

ANSWER:

[REDACTED]