THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Dear Dan,

Those were
very generous comments
you made about me
when it was announced
I would leave Jan. 20th.
I am very grateful
to you.

I will miss CIA.
I love the people

DCI

live with the world,
too, but for reasons
you wish I discussed
it's best I go.

I have enjoyed
working with you.
Your leadership has brought a whole
new meaning to
"oversight". The ugly word of an
"adversary" relationship

has given way <sup>(3)</sup> to oversight that means both
being vigilant to detect things that might be wrong or go wrong
and most important
being alert to ways
to improve and strengthen our intelligence.

Thanks again
for those kind
public comments.
Sincerely,

DCI/GB/28 Nov. 1976
