b. Peru has been invited to send a team of chess players to Dubrovnik to participate in a chess tournament there.

3. The invitation to Peruvian chess players was extended by Dr. Petar Trifunovic, who was recently in Lima. Source reports that Trifunovic is a well-known Yugoslav chess player who has spent several months in Argentina and Uruguay. If the Peruvian chess players accept Trifunovic's invitation, the Yugoslav government will reportedly pay for the travel expenses of the team. On the other hand, the projected visit of the Yugoslav football team to Lima would be financed by the Peruvians.

4. [] It is the new policy of the Yugoslav government and the Legation in Buenos Aires to attempt to better relations with Peru, and probably other Latin American countries, by bringing persons of the two countries together in cultural activities. The ultimate aim of this program is reportedly the establishment of formal diplomatic relations.
