

OPERATION FOXTROT (Johnny)

24 April, 1945

Pinpoint is D-975935 (Sheet Y5), 2 km. S. of Nesselwang, on the road from Wertach to Pussen.

Stage I. Uffz. [redacted] of the 2/1210 VGR is on the way from Reserve-Lazarett Kempten to his troop, part of the 256 VGD, which is stationed near Passau. The Dienstreisechein which the hospital has given him entitles him to 48 hours leave in Innsbruck on the way. His route is therefore Pussen-Innsbruck-St. Johann-Salzburg. (See Hitide #205 for OB.)

(b)(1)
(b)(3)
S

Stage II. In Salzburg he hides these papers and reappears as Uffz. [redacted] of the 1139 VGR, formerly of the Luftwaffe. As such, he has been discharged by the LI-Kurlazarett 2/KII at Bad Gastein, after being treated for #22 (gallbladder infection), to ~~report~~ report at the Bahnhofswachoffizier Regensburg for duty with his troop, FPN of which is 114970. (See Hitide 205; this unit was near Muenzingen, 175 km. West, but is the nearest for which we have FPN).

From Salzburg he will follow the route directly by Kien-Getting-Landlaut-Rogensburg. In case Regensburg is taken, he can use the blank Marschbefehle to get himself through the lines.

He carries:

Stage I. [redacted]

1. Ersatzkarte fuer Soldbuch, ResLaz. Kempten.
2. Dienstreisechein, Kempten to Passau, by ResLaz. Kempten.
3. Letter to Truppenarzt of 1/1210 VGR.
4. 3 day Urlaubermarken and 8 day Hauchermarken.
5. 2 blank Marschbefehle.

(b)(1)
(b)(3)
S

Stage II. [redacted]

6. 1st Soldbuch
7. Dienstreisechein, Bad Gastein to Regensburg, by LI-Kurlaz.
8. Letter to Truppenarzt, FPN 11497A (Stabkp. of Rgt.)
9. 3 day Urlaubermarken and 8 day Hauchermarken.

George L. Howe

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

DATE: 11 200

650