

- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- 1) Gave info concerning troop transports of all lines going thru Stuttgart.
- 2) On our orders remained in Esslingen till the city was occupied (20 April). [REDACTED] received no compensation, with the exception of RM 400.- (see accounts under heading JOSEF) which he needed for his subagents. A letter of recommendation to the direction of the SNFC would be of advantage to him.

(B)(1)

(B)(3)

S

[REDACTED]

Alsacians, lodged EMMY with all her appurtenances for a considerable time, and quite often BOB, JEANNE, WERNER and JOSEF. This family wants to return to Alsace. They have received up to now RM 500.- for March and 200 sfrs. A letter of recommendation is indicated in this case also and besides that they must be compensated financially.

[REDACTED]

Lodged and fed EMMY during her stay in Gaggenau, and BOB during the period of the JE contacts. BOB has already paid the cost of board. A letter of recommendation to the Commandant de la Place of Gaggenau is necessary, as also a certain amount of money, still to be determined.

(B)(1)

(B)(3)

S

[REDACTED]

Lodged and fed several agents, and assisted in the train watching on the stretch Freudenstadt-Rastatt. A letter of recommendation is necessary, until now no money compensation paid out.

(B)(1)

(B)(3)

[REDACTED]

Lodged and fed agents and assisted in the road watching on the stretch Freudenstadt-Rastatt. A letter of recommendation is necessary, no further monetary compensation.

S

- [REDACTED]
- 1) Mission de renseignement between Stuttgart-Freudenstadt Gaggenau, Rastatt, Karlsruhe.
- 2) Mission de renseignement on the line Stuttgart-Höfingen.

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

DATE: JUL 2000

W 9855-4

LD
JE

5-1

- 3) Went to get one of EMMY'S apparatuses in the woods, and transported it from Buch to Esslingen.
- 4) Came thru the front with BOB in order to be parachuted again.

A letter of recommendation is necessary.

Received no salary for March and April.

A position as worker with the occupation authorities was promised by Mr. Henri,

[REDACTED] made great sacrifices for the ANZIO Mission and induced her sisters to do the same.

(B)(1)

(B)(3)

5