Memo for Record
2003

Mr. [] met with Col. King and [] at 1510 this date to discuss the situation in Guatemala. He expressed himself as disappointed that Cordova Cerna did not hold the key to the situation, but relieved that no abortive attempt had been made.

Mr. [] appeared to be satisfied that all possible is being done and promised that all of the facilities [] would be made available to the agency.

[] and [] were presented to Mr. [] who assured them that cover would be provided for them in Honduras and Guatemala.

Mr. [] and Mr. [] will come to Washington within the next few days to complete arrangements for cover and for further operations.
