Dear Arthur:

I understand the viewpoint expressed in your letter of 6 July 1954. You have received the data available to us at second hand and if you would like to have a look at the material personally, I should be glad to send it up to you by trusted messenger so that you could read it and make any notes. It seems to me unwise, and outside the scope of our work here, for me to file any report with you or to have the material which you will examine considered in any other light than as a friendly and informal passage of information from a friend to a friend and which in no way constituted a passage of judgment on our part or a suggestion of action on your part.

If you want this, give me a call and I will see that the information reaches you.

Sincerely yours,

PERSONAL AND ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Dear Allen:

Thank you for your letter of July third.

What I thought you might do was to give me some details which, in turn, would permit me to come to some judgment in the matter.

Would this be proper from the standpoint of your Department?

Faithfully yours,

The Honorable Allen Welsh Dulles
