The Creditor propounds the following
INTERROGATORIES TO BE ANSWERED BY GARNISHEE:

INTERROGATORIES

1. Were you at the time of service of the summons and these interrogatories, indebted, either in property or money, whether due or not, to the debtor, and, if so, how, and in what amount? State fully all particulars.

Answer: _____

2. If the answer to Number 1 is yes, do you have any "earnings" due the debtor for personal services? ("Earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program.)

Answer: _____

3. If you have "earnings" due the debtor for personal services, what is the amount of debtor's disposable earnings" at the time of service of the summons and these interrogatories? ("Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amounts required by law to be withheld. These withholdings may be such things as Federal Income Tax withholding, State Income Tax withholding, and Federal Social Security Tax withholdings).

Answer: _____

4. What is the pay period? (State whether it is weekly, semi-monthly, monthly, etc.)

Answer: _____

5. If you were at the time of the service of this summons and these interrogatories indebted to the debtor in a sum not yet due, when is the same to become due? State fully all particulars.

Answer: _____

6. If you had at the time of the service of this summons and these interrogatories any property of any description or credits of the debtor in your possession or under your control, state the value of the same. State fully all particulars.

Answer: _____

7. If you are a corporation, was there any stock therein held by or for the benefit of the debtor at the time of service of the summons and these interrogatories? If so, describe the same; state in what amount, the value thereof and full particulars.

Answer: _____

8. State whether or not the debtor is the head of a family, or if there is any other fact touching on his exemptions.

Answer: _____

(This space for additional interrogatories)

Garnishee

NOTE TO GARNISHEE: If the statement on the face of this Summons in Garnishment indicates that the Garnishment IS based on one of the matters indicated such as CHILD SUPPORT OR ALIMONY, see instructions below. If this garnishment "is not" based on Child support or Alimony, and debtor is head of a family, only 15% of the disposable earnings can be held pursuant to Sec. 25-1558, R.S. Nebr. 1943, (1972 Supp.) Garnishee shall only hold the credits of the debtor in his possession or under his control at the time of the service of the Garnishee Summons to the extent of the amount of the judgment, interest, and costs set forth on the face of this summons, until further order of the court. (For definitions of "earnings" and "disposable earnings" see Interrogatories Nos. 2 and 3 supra)

Table for Computing Garnishment

1. If the defendant-employee's disposable earnings are less than:

$100.50 for a weekly pay period	$201.00 for a bi-weekly pay period
$217.77 for a semi-monthly period	$435.54 for a monthly pay period

Pay the employee as if his pay check were not garnished.

2. If the defendant-employee's disposable earnings are:

$100.50 to $134.00 for a weekly pay period	Pay him $100.50
$201.00 to $268.00 for a bi-weekly pay period	Pay him $201.00
$217.77 to $290.36 for a semi-monthly period	Pay him $217.77
$435.54 to $580.72 for a monthly pay period	Pay him $435.54

Any disposable earnings remaining after payment of the above amounts may be withheld.

3. If the defendant-employee's disposable earnings are more than

$134.00 for a weekly pay period	Pay him 75% of his disposable earnings
$268.00 for a bi-weekly pay period	Pay him 75% of his disposable earnings
$290.36 for a semi-monthly pay period	Pay him 75% of his disposable earnings
$580.72 for a monthly pay period	Pay him 75% of his disposable earnings

Any disposable earnings remaining after payment of the above amounts may be withheld.

The above table is based on the minimum hourly wage of $3.35.

Garnishment to Enforce Orders of Support

1. Subject to the exception in paragraph 2 below, if the garnishment is to enforce any order for the support of any person:

- (a) Pay the defendant-employee 50% of his disposable earnings for any workweek which is subject to the garnishment if such employee is supporting his spouse or dependent child (other than a spouse or child with respect to whose support such order is used);
- (b) Pay the defendant-employee 40% of his disposable earnings for any workweek which is subject to the garnishment if such employee is not supporting a spouse or dependent child described in (a) above.

Any disposable earnings remaining after payment of the above amounts may be withheld.

2. If and to the extent that defendant-employee's disposable earnings for any workweek are subject to garnishment to enforce a support order with respect to a period which is prior to the twelve-week period which ends with the beginning of the workweek subject to the garnishment:

- (a) Pay the defendant-employee 45% of his disposable earnings for any workweek which is subject to the garnishment if such employee is supporting his spouse or dependent child (other than a spouse or child with respect to whose support such order is used);
- (b) Pay the defendant-employee 35% of his disposable earnings for any workweek which is subject to the garnishment if such employee is not supporting a spouse or dependent child described in (a) above.

Any disposable earnings remaining after payment of the above amounts may be withheld.
