

~~Secret~~Pakistan

On 25 March in Karachi, a bomb exploded in a crowded marketplace killing two persons and injuring one other, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 7 April in Rawalpindi, a bomb exploded in a grain market, injuring four persons, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 12 April in Mallow Wali, armed militants cut telephone lines to the village, threw grenades into a mosque, and opened fire on the congregation, killing 15 persons, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

Sri Lanka

On 10 March in Colombo, armed militants attacked the advance security vehicle of the Deputy Defense Minister using rocket-propelled grenades, handgrenades, and automatic weapons, killing 22 persons and wounding 47 others, according to press reports. The Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) is probably responsible. [redacted]

On 7 April in Girwelkanda, LTTE members killed 11 police officers, two civilians, and wounded four others, according to press reports. [redacted]

EurasiaAzerbaijan

On 22 March in Stepanakert, [redacted] unidentified gunmen opened fire on the Nagorno-Karabakh presidential convoy, injuring the president, his driver, and his bodyguard. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 11 April in Irkutsk, press accounts reported four masked gunmen broke into the Azeri Cultural Center and opened fire with assault rifles and a handgrenade, killing five persons and injuring two others. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

Russia

On 16 March in St. Petersburg, according to press reports, a grenade exploded at an apartment building entrance, causing minor damage but no injuries. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 30 March near Moscow, press accounts reported bomb disposal experts defused an explosive device discovered at the Sheremetyevo-1 Airport. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 3 April in the Novolak District, according to government officials, a bomb exploded inside a bus, killing two persons and injuring three others. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 7 April in Krasnodar, government officials reported a car bomb exploded, killing a local political official and three other persons. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

On 13 April near Samara, a bomb exploded on a section of the Mokrous-Tolyatya gas pipeline, causing a major fire but no injuries, according to government officials. No one claimed responsibility. [redacted]

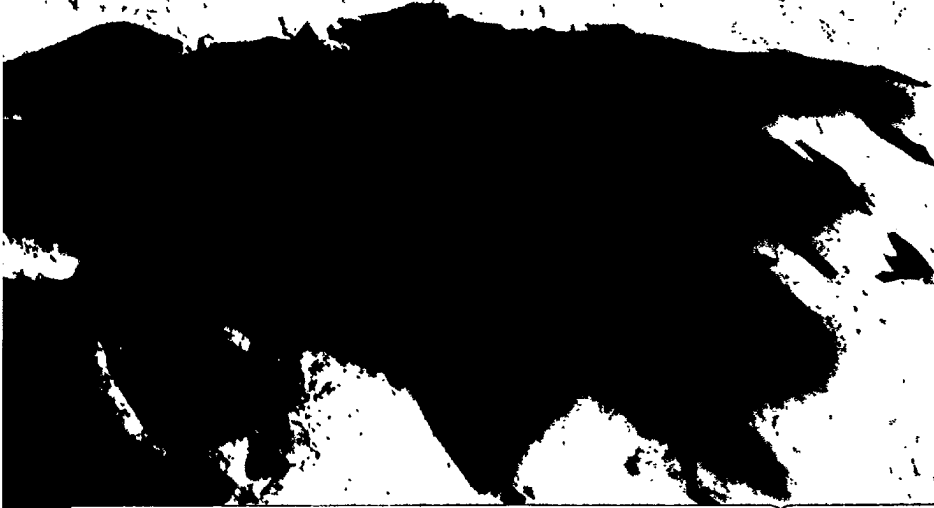

~~Secret~~

TERRORISM R E V I E W

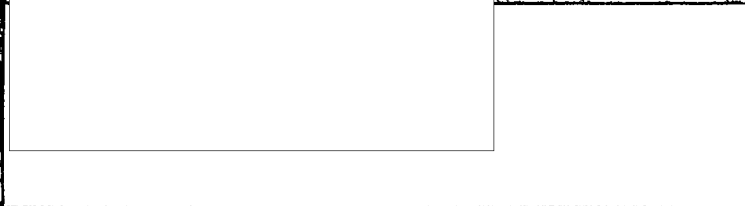

MARCH-APRIL 2000

~~SECRET~~

TR
6/14

CIADI TR 2000-02

~~SECRET~~
DI TR 2000-02
April 2000
Copy 0360