LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION FOR [redacted]

1. Effective 14 JUN 1954, this Letter of Authorization will define your relationship with the United States Government while you are on detail from the United States Army to another Governmental organization (hereinafter called "this organization").

2. In recognition of the special mission to which you have been assigned, it is hereby agreed that the following rights, restrictions, and obligations will be in force during the period you are performing this particular mission for this organization:

(a) It is specifically understood and agreed that you are a member of the Armed Forces of the United States and that you are entitled to retain from either the U. S. Army or this organization, only the salary, allowances and other benefits which are commensurate with your military grade and post of assignment.

(b) As you will be assigned by the United States Army on bona fide military PCS orders to Indo-China, you will receive from your parent military service your base pay and longevity, and the allowances applicable to the designated unit to which you will be assigned.

(c) It is contemplated that you may be furnished transportation to and from your permanent post of duty overseas by your parent military service. In the event that such transportation is not so furnished, you will be advanced or reimbursed funds by this organization for said travel and transportation expenses and for authorized travel within your operational area. You will be entitled to per diem in lieu of subsistence in the course of this travel in accordance with applicable Government civilian travel regulations. All travel, transportation and per diem provided you under this paragraph by this organization must be properly authorized, and expenses incurred hereunder are subject to payment and accounting in compliance with the regulations of this organization.

(d) In conformance with the Joint Travel Regulations, this organization will advance or reimburse you funds for the travel and transportation expenses of your dependents and your household effects from your present area of assignment to any place in the United States which you may designate. If authority is granted for your dependents to join you at your permanent post of duty overseas, this organization will advance or reimburse you funds for the travel and transportation expenses of your dependents and your household effects subject to the emergency restrictions of your parent military service; from the place so designated by you to your permanent post of duty overseas, and, upon completion of your assignment with this organization, from your permanent post of duty overseas to Washington, D. C. Your dependents will be entitled to per diem in the course of such overseas travel in accordance with applicable Government civilian travel regulations. The expenses incurred in the movement of your dependents and your household effects from said designated place in the United States to your permanent post of duty overseas shall include transportation as indicated above and storage of such household effects as are not moved, provided that the total amount of household effects moved plus the total amount of household effects stored shall not exceed the total weight allowance prescribed (by the Joint Travel Regulations) for a major in the U. S. Army. All travel transportation and per diem provided for under this paragraph must be properly authorized, and expenses incurred hereunder are subject to payment and accounting in compliance with the organization's regulations and, where applicable, the Joint Travel Regulations.

(e) You will be advanced or reimbursed funds for necessary operational expenses as specifically approved by this organization. Such funds will be subject to accounting in compliance with the regulations of this organization.

(f) It is anticipated that by virtue of your duties on this particular assignment for this organization you may be required to fulfill the minimum Department of the Army requirements necessary for the receipt of extra-hazardous duty pay (demolition pay). If such requirements are met and proper certification is made thereto, and if for security or operational reasons such payments cannot be made to you by your parent military organization, then, this organization will pay to you the sum of $100.00 per month in lieu of an identical amount you would have received from the United States Army had you been on overt military duty abroad. Your mission chief, or a responsible senior mission official will be required to certify to this organization that the handling and exploding of demolitions is a requirement of your duty with this organization, that you have fulfilled the minimum Department of the Army regulations necessary for the receipt of such extra-hazardous duty pay, and that no payment therefor has been received by you from your parent military service.

(g) You will be entitled to leave in accordance with the policies of your parent military service. Upon the completion of your present assignment, you will be required to certify to your parent military service the number of days annual leave you have taken during your assignment with this organization.

(h) If, in the performance of your cover service, you assume the custody of government funds or take title of record to property of any nature whatsoever and wherever situate, which property has in fact been purchased with monies of the U. S. Government, you hereby recognize and acknowledge the existence of a trust relationship, either express or constructive, and you agree to execute whatever documents may be required by this organization to evidence this relationship.

4. The conditions of this authorization are predicated upon the assumption that you will be assigned to Saigon, Indo-China under bona fide military cover, and that you will continue under such cover for the duration of your overseas assignment with this organization. Any deviation from these facts will require a new Letter of Authorization or amendment thereto.
