Chief, SR Chief, MEA Chief, MEA Chief, MEA Chief, FE 27 February 1959 REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to RETAIN TOR NORMANG HOUSED For your information 2. had previously lent an English translation of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to AMAGED FOR NORMANG NORMANG HOUSED RECENSION TORNESSON RECENSION REC		CLASSIFICATION	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NO.
Chief, NEA Chief, FE REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH AMARED FOR NORDING NO NORDING KNOWN REDWOOD AND REDWOOD	ISPATCH	The she
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to REDWOOD TO RUSSIAN COPY OF DR. ZHIVAGO TO For your information Provided the same of the first of the same of	Chica an		HEADQUARTERS FILE NO.
Chief, FE REDWOOD/PSYCH REDWOOD/PSYCH PASSING OF Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to the Book to	Chief NEA
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to RETUSI - GURKET TONE Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to RETUSI - GURKET TONE MARKE FOR NORMENG NO NORMENG GROUND REDWOOD TO INFORMATION RETUSION TO NORMENG GROUND RETUSION TO NORMENG GROUND RETUSION TO NORMENG GROUND RETUSION TO RUSSIAN COPY OF DR. ZHIVAGO TO RESERVE AND RETUSION TO RESERVE AND RETUSION TO RETUSION	Chief, FE
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to To your information 2.			DATE .
Absolute of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to Application			27 February 1959
Absolute of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to Application	BEDWOOD /Deven		RE: "43-3" — (CHECK "X" ONE)
For your information 2. had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. To to worry because he had written to a Irrend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to converse to depart. Then told her her would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered had sent the book on with a note stating that English had been printed in the Russian language. Friend had sent the book on with a note stating that English has a sent to be an action of the previous discussion concerning has sing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could sassing the book to the Russians. The membered and the previous discussion concerning has sing the book to the Russians. The manner of the recover of the result of the remains the had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was suffered to the Russians. The membered are copy which she would discuss it with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was a present of the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was a present of the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was a present of the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was a present of the Russians to be an act of provocation which might was a present of the Russians to be an act of pro	Passing of Russian	Conv of Dr. ZHTWACO +-
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and iiscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, naving had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told her book and intended to return it very soon, told her book and intended to return it very soon, told her book and intended to return it very soon, told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, to told her book and intended to return it very soon, was discovered by the book of the book on with a singe the provided in the had the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which the had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be assing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was shout to return the book when he was shout to return the book when he was the thin wor her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that	E OI RUSSIAN	coby or Dr. Survey to	NO INDEXING REQUIRED
had previously lent an English translation of and she asked if she might pass it on some of her friends. It is a said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embasy to read and discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, anaving had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told her not to worry because he had written to a Irriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovery or have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. suggested that she with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be a made to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be a made to the count of the search		on
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on to some of her friends. said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, naving had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon to to worry because he had written to a triend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 16th when came to converse they were to depart. the hold that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Brusself and purchased the copy which are well ast
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on to some of her friends. said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, naving had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, to to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the lith when came to converse to depart. The told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Chivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Brussels and her would give the book to the Brussels and h	28 Nove	mbon 1059
the book to and she asked if she might pass it on to some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. It told her not to worry because he had written to a irrend of his in the litates requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until hust before they were to depart. It had the had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. Said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she has twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she would discuss it it it was the idea with enthusiasm and said me wound give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it was explained to her that she could hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it is well as the provocation which we he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	, ~o nove	MOGI ISOU
the book to and she asked if she might pass it on to some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. It told her not to worry because he had written to a irrend of his in the litates requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until hust before they were to depart. It had the had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. Said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she has twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she would discuss it it it was the idea with enthusiasm and said me wound give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it was explained to her that she could hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it is well as the provocation which we he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.
to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book to one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon totld her not to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the States requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to reresation was entirely in a light vein until that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Friend had sent the book on with a note stating that English alanguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Erussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Erussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussians. Suggested that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might alier and purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it had purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it had purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it had purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it had purchased the provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might appear to the Russian at the copy will be a soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it in he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	the book to to some of her frie	and she asked if ends.	she might pass it on discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to return it very soon. It had the book and intended to have the had written to a Irrend of his in the book and the fit had been printed in the fit had been printed in the Russian language. Criend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had been printed in the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels. In the hope and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss that him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might wause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could me would obtained the copy which she would discuss it it it was an and purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it was explained to her that she could me would give the ook to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it was explained to her had been to her be had been printed in the she would discuss it it it was explained to her that she could have the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	to do so and sugges	sted in a joking manner t	that she give the hoo house one day to tell him that she still had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon to to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until state had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Friend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had been been detained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope sassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she had obtained at the Russians. Suggested that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could hear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it. We have no idea to whom will give the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	to one of her Russi	lan Irlends in the Soviet	t Embassy to read and house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon told her not to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the other to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the other to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the other to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the other to depart. 3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until just before they were to depart. Then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. The had sent the book on with a note stating that English and obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could use it. Said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lead the the that the could me would give the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith the we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	urscuss. She took	the book and nothing mor	re was said until, ont to worry because he had written to a Irlend of his in the states requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until lust before they were to depart. then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. The had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could lead obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could lead obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could lead obtained at the Russians. Suggested that she was about to return the book when he lead obtained at the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might are the Russians to be an act of provocation which might always her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she would discuss it in the look but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	naving had the book	c for several weeks.	stopped at
States requesting an additional copy. 3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until just before they were to depart. then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see that obtained at the Brussels Fair in the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. suggested that she was stated book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might aphear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also had obtained the book from an American as it might aphear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also had obtained the book from an American as it might aphear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also had obtained the book from an American as it might aphear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also had obtained the book from an American as it might aphear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also had obtained the book but went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she would discuss it in the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	nouse c book and intended t	one day to tell him that
3. On the 18th when came to that he had vere to depart. then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Then had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could use it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning hassing the book to the Russians. suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could let them that are copy which she then to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	not to worry becaus	se he had written to a tr	cord ner
3. On the 18th when came to reresation was entirely in a light vein until oust before they were to depart. Then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered to have been printed in the Russian language. The had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could use it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning wassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss that she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	States requesting a	an additional copy.	The state of the s rersation was entirely in a light vein until just before they were to depart.
then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Friend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning sassing the book to the Russians. suggested that she has the had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might also her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it. We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.			to con-
received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. The printed had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the previous discussion concerning the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have all them that are embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	were to depart.	then told	that he had the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discovered have been printed in the Russian language. Friend had sent the book on with a note stating that English language copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope look when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning sassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it. We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	received his additi	onal copy of Dr. Zhivago	and asked her if
Chiend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he membered and the previous discussion concerning sassing the book to the Russians. suggested that she has the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could eall them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	sne would trade cop	ing with him gines the m anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning susging the book to the Russians. suggested that she hass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:		res arou urm stude one u	iew copy was disc overe see it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning susgested that she asses the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have the embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the mound give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	to nave been printe	ed in the Russian languag	re.
said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning bassing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might have all them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	to nave been printe friend had sent the	ed in the Russian languag e book on with a note sta	ge. Ling that English and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. assing the book to the Russians. ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	to have been printe friend had sent the language copies wer	ed in the Russian languag e book on with a note sta re unavailable and so he	ge. ting that English sent on a copy which suggested that she has the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer had obtained at use it.	ed in the Russian languag book on with a note sta re unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the	ge.
this with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said her compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it. We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer he had obtained at use it.	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to ret and the previous dis	ge.
that she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer ne had obtained at use it. Exemple commend to be said to be said to be said the book to be said the book to	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retand the previous distants.	se.
pear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might hause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could let them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer ne had obtained at use it. Exemple cossing the book to pass the book on to	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to ret and the previous distance one of her acquaintance	se.
ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said her would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer ne had obtained at use it. Exemembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be the with him or her	ed in the Russian language book on with a note start of the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distance on the Russians.	set that English sent on a copy which the hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discussioned not to mention went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said he would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith. We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to ret and the previous distore the Russians. The one of her acquaintance later on. She was cautiled the book from an American to be an act of provoces.	set that English sent on a copy which hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discussion to mention ican as it might apartion which might accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bears her embarrass	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to ret and the previous distore the Russians. The one of her acquaintance later on. She was cautiled the book from an American to be an act of provoces.	set that English sent on a copy which hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discussion to mention ican as it might apartion which might ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian cause her embarrass sell them that	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distone of her acquaintance later on. She was cautied the book from an Ameris to be an act of provocament. It was explained	set that English sent on a copy which hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discussioned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian cause her embarrass sell them that	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to ret and the previous distorted the Russians. The one of her acquaintance later on. She was cautined the book from an Americant to be an act of provocument. It was explained the copy which she then	set that English sent on a copy which hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discussioned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her
We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. cemembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be with him or her bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear and purchased	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retand the previous distorted the Russians. The the Russians one of her acquaintance later on. She was cautified the book from an Amer is to be an act of provociment. It was explained the copy which she then accepted the idea with	seting that English sent on a copy which hope could curn the book when he cussion concerning suggested that she is and then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us. 7 February 1959 istribution:	friend had sent the language copies wer he had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bause her embarrass cell them that air and purchased brief and purchased be would give the	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retand the previous distone of her acquaintance later on. She was cautified the book from an America to be an act of provocument. It was explained the copy which she then accepted the idea with book to both a Soviet and	ge. Iting that English sent on a copy which count the book when he curn the book when he cursion concerning suggested that she is and then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might ap- ation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and
7 February 1959	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be the with him or her chat she had obtain bear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that bear and purchased the would give the chen compare their with	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	ge. String that English sent on a copy which chart the book when he cursion concerning suggested that she s and then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might ap- ation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear t	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	ge. String that English sent on a copy which chart the book when he cursion concerning suggested that she s and then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might ap- ation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be the with him or her chat she had obtain bear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that bear and purchased the would give the chen compare their with	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give
istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear t	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	ge.
istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear t	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	ge.
istribution:	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear t	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	ge. String that English sent on a copy which chart the book when he cursion concerning suggested that she s and then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might ap- ation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bear t	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give
	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to the Russian bear to the Russi	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give
SR 2 FE NEA 2	to have been printe friend had sent the language copies were he had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be that she had obtain bear to the Russian bea	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give NËA Ž	friend had sent the language copies were had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to bass the book on to be the remembered bassing the book on the with him or her chat she had obtain bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear to the Russian bear and purchased belief and purchased belief by the book but we will atter with us.	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give to have been printe friend had sent the language copies were he had obtained at use it. remembered bassing the book to eass the book on to be that she had obtain ear to the Russian eause her embarrass cell them that air and purchased then compare their with the book but we will eatter with us.	ed in the Russian language book on with a note stare unavailable and so he the Brussels Fair in the said he was about to retain and the previous distributed the Russians. The control of the book from an Americant to be an act of provocation. It was explained the copy which she the idea with book to both a Soviet and reactions, after which shave no idea to whom	seting that English sent on a copy which chart he book when he cussion concerning suggested that she sand then discuss oned not to mention ican as it might apation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her enthusiasm and said d White Russian and he would discuss it will give

ROUTING AND RECORD SHEET

INSTRUCTIONS: Use officer designations in the "TO" column. Number each comment to correspond with the number in the "TO" column. Draw a line across the sheet under each comment. Each officer should date and initial (check mark insufficient) before further routing. This Routing and Record sheet should NOT be removed from the attached RECORD document.

ROM:	RIT					DOCUMENT NUMBER
•	Ber 1					DOCUMENT DATE
		ROOM	DA	ATE.	OFFICER'S
	0	NO.	RECEIVED	FORWARDED	INITIALS	COMMENTS
•	1:		12 MAR 1953	16 MAR 1959		OTE: If a copy or attachments are removed from the atched document, note the location of the copy and/or attachent hereon. If this RECORD COPY is to be retained in the tiles at the Desk, call the Central File Section for per
			:			manent loan.
			17,MAR
					·
			25,MA	P
			Z3195
•						FILE TITLE
						ME MERONANA
						FILE NUMBER
						ENCLOSURE
· F	RI/FI					DATE PROCESSED INDEX

Approved for Release: 2012/09/19