The following procedure in regard to SGRECORD-DTLINEN has been agreed to:

A. Messrs. John N. WATERFIELD, RNSLIVER and Identity One will meet with Paul V. BOUDREAU and Charles E. NEWHAM in a hotel suite on 7 May. They will be joined later on by [] WATERFIELD will inform BOUDREAU and NEWHAM that SGRECORD has approved a grant for the organization in an unspecified amount.

B. This grant is to be used for "humanitarian" purposes only.

C. [] will continue to supply funds for special operations with DTLINEN being accountable to and seeking guidance from him for these operations.

D. [] will also be available to guide DTLINEN in the use of SGRECORD funds.

E. [] will pick up three copies of DTLINEN's monthly report accounting for the expenditures of SGRECORD money, indicating progress made in the humanitarian activities and, from time to time, proposing additional activities in this particular field.

Inasmuch as it is undesirable to inform DTLINEN of the amount granted by SGRECORD ($150,000), the initial payment will be decided upon during the meeting mentioned above and probably will be in the neighborhood of $5,000. DTLINEN will, in its monthly reports, ask for additional portions of the grants; [] will comment on the amounts recommending whether we are to increase or decrease as the case may be.

SGRECORD money will be sent by Identity One to DTLINEN direct.

DTLINEN reports, picked up by [] will be distributed in the following manner:

A. The original copy will be sent via BGMIDDY to Identity One for transmission to BGTOWN;

B. The second copy to go via BGMIDDY to Identity One for his retention;

C. The third copy to be retained by []

[] recommendation on the increase or decrease of SGRECORD money will be channelled via the BGMIDDY office to Identity One for transmittal to BGTOWN.

Communications between BGTOWN and DTLINEN will go through Identity One who will keep [] informed via the BGMIDDY office.
