Operational SUBJECT: Document Copies from DTLINEN

TO

: Chief of Mission Frankfurt, Germany INFO: Chief, QKFENCE

- 1. We are transmitting to you under separate cover two documents which we have received from DTLINEN.
 - a. Photostat copy of a letter to DTLINEN by the Berlin Office for the Protection of the Constitution. This letter, which we believe has been sent to all West Berlin resistance groups, deals with the inauguration of a special office within the Ministry of State Security, with the purpose of combatting spies, saboteurs, etc. We believe this will be of particular interest to GKFAMCE.
 - b. Order #5-52 issued by the Chief Section German Border Police of the Ministry of State Security. This document was brought to the peoples police contact office run by DTHINEM and had to be returned. It was photostated and is transmitted to you for your information. This document deals with the regulations issued by the Ministry of State Security and deals with regulations for the purpose of tightening control over the movement of West Germans into East Germany. Attached to it is what we believe to be the first photostatic copy of the new permits enabling West Germans to go to the Bast Zone. We hope to be able to furnish you with the originals in the not too distant future. For the time being, however, this will give you an idea as to their size and general appearance.
