Mr. Yasha Levine

(b)(6)

Reference: F-2015-01753

Dear Mr. Levine:

This is a final response to your 27 May 2015 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 27 May 2015, for the following records:

1. [You] request a copy of all correspondence (emails, letters, related documents and attachments) related to Keyhole Inc. This part of the request should include all correspondence between the CIA and representatives of Keyhole Inc., date range from 1/1/2000 through 12/31/2006.
2. [You] request copy of all correspondence (emails, letters, related documents and attachments) referring to or discussing Google's purchase of Keyhole Inc. This part of the request should include all correspondence between the CIA and representatives of Google regarding Keyhole, including Keyhole software and services. Date range 1/1/2003 through 12/31/2014.

We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

In accordance with section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of requested records is currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information that is protected from disclosure by section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, and section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Therefore, your request is denied pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). I have enclosed an explanation of these exemptions for your reference and retention. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 45 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael Lavergne".

Michael Lavergne
Information and Privacy Coordinator
