Mr. Joel Whitney

(b)(6)

Reference: F-2018-02401

Dear Mr. Whitney:

This is a final response to your undated, postmarked 14 August 2018, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for information or records on the former President of Chile, Gabriel González Videla. We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3141, as amended.

After conducting a search reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents, we did not locate any responsive records that would reveal an openly acknowledged CIA affiliation with the subject.

To the extent that your request seeks records, if any exist, that would reveal a classified association between the CIA and the subject of your request, we can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of such records. The mere existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact. You may consider this finding a denial of this portion of your request pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. In this case, the relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, 50 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, 50 U.S.C. § 3024, as amended. I have enclosed an explanation of exemptions for your reference and retention.

As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.
