Dear Mr. Whitney:

On 5 September 2018, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your undated, postmarked 14 August 2018, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for information or records on the former president of Chile Gabriel González Videla.

Our officers will review your request in more detail and will advise you should they encounter any problems or if they cannot begin the search without additional information or clarification. We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily. Unless you object, we will limit our search to CIA-originated records up to and including the date the Agency starts its search.

Please be advised, the FOIA authorizes federal agencies to collect fees for records services. Based on the information provided in your letter, we determined that your request falls into the "all other" fee category, which may require you to pay applicable search and copying fees (if any exist) beyond the first 100 pages of reproduction and the first two hours of search time, which are free. Copies are ten cents per page. However, you will not be assessed for searching because we do not anticipate the search going beyond the two hours to which you are entitled to free. We note your agreement to pay up to $1. As you requested, we will notify you if fees exceed that amount.

Sincerely,
