1. The reference was forwarded by HE for comment. We agree with your inclination to turn down further operations involving Identity 2's offer to defect CAUTION 5. In fact, we had gathered from conversations with [ ] that this operation had been written off some time ago.

2. The reference does not comment on the possibility implied in MEOW-11611 that CAUTION 5 has not been in Germany since 1930. It is suggested that before such time is spent on the action outlined in para. 2 of reference, you send someone over to Cherechonskaya to check CAUTION 5's address. Para. 2 of MEOW-5365 states that CAUTION 5 lived in a compound at the time of Identity 2's visit in February 1951, but it has been our understanding that the Russians are no longer using this area as a compound.
